

MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE TO THE ENTIRE CITY

Final Reports Thereon Were Delayed in Council Because Committees Failed to Make Returns.

WINE ROOM ORDINANCE ON THE TABLE

Excuses galore were promulgated by the several committees of council last evening for not being ready to report on the subjects of importance entrusted to them three weeks ago. President Horwell deemed it expedient that final reports, especially by the ordinance committee, should be made soon and when the council meeting adjourned it was with the understanding that another meeting will be held on next Tuesday evening when every committee is pledged to submit a full report.

The two ordinances presented by the Newell Bridge company are well compiled and the councilmen that have already investigated them report that favorable action will be taken on them. A representative of the bridge company was present at the meeting and he urged that action be taken as soon as possible. He said that the company intends to let the contract for the work on April 14 and is desirous that the entire right of way be gained prior to that time. If the work is held back any length of time at the present period of the year it will mean much to the company. It is argued that more work can be accomplished in two weeks of spring than in two months of winter.

For some unknown reason the wine room ordinance was not discussed. It is on its first reading and when the city auditor stated that it was ready for a second reading the president did not call for the reading. As a result it was tabled and will not be taken up until the next meeting. By the non-action the councilmen saved themselves a severe harrange. Mayor Weaver was present and he was prepared to fire a 13-inch gun right into the midst of the people who have made his ordinance resemble a Canadian quarter with a hole in it. The chief executive was prepared to voice his sentiments and no doubt would have given vent to scathing vituperation. He is utterly opposed to the action of council and will not be slow in publicly telling them.

James Kirkham, of Peake's Point, was present and asked council to take speedy action toward repairing damage done to his property as the result of negligence on the part of the city. He said the recent rains have washed

M'CORMICK'S CONDITION

As the Result of a Bullet Wound Is Pronounced Extremely Critical.

It now develops that the bullet with which Andrew McCormick was shot at Wellsville Monday entered the right lung. Attending physicians say that just what will be the ultimate result of the wound is hard to determine just now. His condition last night was not as favorable for recovery as it was during the early part of the day. He suffered several hemorrhages last evening and is too weak to arise from his bed.

According to a statement by his mother, McCormick refuses absolutely to say anything about the shooting. Therefore, the story of his former wife that he shot himself is accepted as the truth.

Dr. Campbell, who is attending McCormick, said today that judging from the character of the wound it is possible that the position of the pistol with which he was shot was five feet away from him. However, the physician contends that McCormick could have shot himself.

Fined for Fighting.

Ben Wyant and William Hemphill were arrested last evening on a charge of fighting. Officers Byran and Woods saw them pummeling Robert Weiss and took them to the city hall. They pleaded guilty and were fined $5. Wyant alleged that the arresting officers took unfair advantage of him, striking him when they had him at their mercy. It could not be learned what caused the fight with Weiss.

away large spots of his land and that he will sue the city if the repair is not made at once. The matter was referred to the service board with instructions to act.

The auditor read a petition submitted by the property holders on North street, who ask that that thoroughfare be improved by paving, etc. The petition was referred to the street committee, and Mr. Bullock was appointed to fill the position on that committee made vacant by the continuous absence of Mr. Smith. Mr. Bullock will act as chairman of the committee.

Mr. Bullock reported for the finance committee. He said that the committee had decided it would be best to pay the bill of Engineer George, who testified in two cases at Lisbon in which the city was defendant. He also reported favorably on the Bradshaw avenue sewer proposition. The committee recommended that the city agree to pay a certain share of the expense and council passed a motion instructing the service board to proceed with the work. The amount of money to be paid by the city, according to the city engineer, is $946. J. C. Cunningham has the contract for the work and will be instructed to start it in a few days.

Mr. Cannon reported that he was not ready to make any statement relative to the extension of the city limits, but would be at the adjourned meeting. Mr. Johnson reported in like manner on the license ordinance, as did also Mr. Bullock on the vehicle ordinance.

At this juncture the mayor advised that action be taken at once on the license ordinance, as the time of the year has arrived when licenses are renewed.

A bill of Attorney P. M. Smith for $125 due him for services for the city in the Bettbridge case was referred to the finance committee.

The ordinance granting M. F. Davis the right to construct a switch to his proposed new storage plant on Walnut street will be reported on at the next meeting. There was no action whatever taken on the proposition of Gamble & Surles, who want to lay a track to their brick yard in the East End. Nothing will be done until they have secured the proper number of signatures to their petition.

A LOST NOTE

The Subject of an Interesting Lawsuit With the Sum of $500 at Stake.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special).—The case of Samuel Knecht vs. John Oesch was tried to the court yesterday afternoon and taken under advisement.

The plaintiff sues for $500, alleged to be due on a note with interest at 3 per cent, and the defendant was ready to confess judgment for the face of the note and 18 months' interest on condition that the plaintiff, who had lost the note, would give an indemnifying bond to secure the defendant from twice paying it. The note was originally given May 1, 1901, to bear 3 per cent interest and was later renewed at the same rate of interest.

Knecht was in Alliance one day in March, 1903, and on his return home near Salem found that he had lost the note, which he never recovered. Oesch learned, however, that Knecht had left the note with different persons on several occasions, among them John Ashman, a Salem saloonkeeper, and Oesch feared should he settle with Knecht, the note might turn up again for payment. Knecht said on the witness stand that he had only left the note with friends several times for safekeeping and had never endorsed it.

Back from a Vacation.

East Palestine, April 13.—(Special).—Rev. J. M. Johnson, pastor of the Christian church here, has returned from a two weeks' visit at Mt. Clemens, Mich., and is much improved in health.

HALF MILLION LOSS

The Cadillac Automobile Works at Detroit Destroyed By Fire This Morning.

Detroit, April 13.—(Special).—The Cadillac automobile works, the largest in the country, burned this morning. The loss is estimated at half a million.

First Visit in Years.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special).—Solon C. Thayer, of Towanda, Pa., who was the promoter and first president of the Columbiana County Telephone company, called on friends in Lisbon yesterday morning, coming here from Warren, O., where he had business. Mr. Thayer is now manager of a telephone company at Towanda. He was accompanied by W. R. Crossley, of Youngstown, manager of the Columbiana County Telephone company.

CALCUTTA ROAD SALE OF BONDS

A Toledo Concern and Not Attorney Gaston the Highest Bidder.

TROUBLE OVER PROJECT

Trouble over the proposed improvement of the Calcutta road is said to have caused the resignation of John Crawford, one of the trustees of St. Clair township. Mr. Crawford, it is alleged, has been opposed to the improvement. The vacancy caused by his resignation has been filled by the appointment by Justice Moore, of James McIntosh, who is said to favor the improvement.

It is now asserted that the sale of $20,000 of Calcutta road bonds by St. Clair township to Attorney George Gaston, of Cleveland, was illegal, Mr. Gaston not being the highest bidder, and that the bonds should go to the Security Savings Bank & Trust company, of Toledo, which bid $21,175, against Mr. Gaston's bid of $20,675.

The township trustees yesterday decided that the Toledo firm ought to have the bonds.

ANOTHER EXECUTION

Of a Condemned Man Booked to Take Place in State Prison This Week.

Columbus, April 13.—The present week will probably add to the annals of the Ohio penitentiary the eleventh electrocution or the thirty-ninth execution, as the view point may be.

There is little chance for interference in the case of John Bennett, the young Kentucky negro condemned by the Lorain county court to pay the penalty Friday morning. Nothing stands between him and his doom but the pardon board. The record of the board in pardon cases has not been one of leniency, and a commutation at its hands is very unlikely.

Nearly three years have elapsed since the last electrocution. It was that of Edward Ruthven, of Cuyahoga county, June 28, 1901. As the contingency of interference in the Bennett case is so small, the penitentiary officials have begun to make preparations for the execution.

WEST POINT REACHED

By the Youngstown & Southern Railway Surveyors on the Way to East Liverpool.

The Youngstown & Southern electric railway surveying crew has reached West Point village on their way to East Liverpool. West Point is ten miles from East Liverpool.

Probate Court Matters.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special).—Private sale of personal property of the estate of the late Thomas T. Hamilton, of Wellsville, not having been effected, an order of public sale has been issued. Lewis Walker has qualified as executor of the estate of John Reamer, deceased, of West township, under bond of $100. No appraisal.

Death of an Infant.

The 1-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Matthews, of Rural lane, died at 10 o'clock this morning. Interment will be made Friday.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special).—Oliver C. Detwiler, of Allegheny, and Catharine A. Lottman, of Salem, have been licensed to marry.

GREAT DISASTER FOR RUSSIANS

Warship Hits a Mine in Port Arthur Harbor and Is Blown Up.

NEARLY 700 LIVES LOST

Only Four Persons Survive Out of the Crew Carried By the Ship—Admiral Marakoff Among the Lost And Grand Duke Cyril Wounded.

Port Arthur, April 13.—(Special).—The Russian first-class battle ship Oostrofavloosk was blown up this morning by a Russian mine while going out of the harbor with a fleet to repel the attack on the fort by the Japanese.

Only four out of 700 officers and men are reported to have survived, including the Grand Duke Cyril, who is wounded. Admiral Makaroff is among the lost.

RAILROAD BILL IS APPROVED

COMPANY PRACTICALLY DECIDES TO ACCEPT ORDINANCE.

Matter Discussed By City Officials And Agreement Probable at an Early Date.

City Solicitor George E. Davidson this afternoon communicated by telephone with Attorney Carey, of Salem regarding the ordinance passed by council weeks ago giving the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad company the right to lay and maintain an additional track in the city. Mr. Carey announced that he would be in the city before the end of the week and that the ordinance will be accepted according to legal methods.

Mr. Moon, of the city council, last evening wanted to know why the company had not accepted the ordinance. He said that the company seemed in a terrible flurry about the measure prior to its passage, but after it received the support of council the company seemed to lessen interest. He advised that the company either accept the ordinance at once or the solicitor be instructed to have the injunction pending at Lisbon enforced. The councilmen all agreed with Mr. Moon and the solicitor was asked to proceed.

Mr. Carey informed the solicitor that the ordinance had been practically accepted and that the reason for the delay was due to the change in superintendents of the railroad.

ABUSE WAS CHARGED IN A DIVORCE CASE

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special).—In common pleas court yesterday afternoon, Sarah McGonell, of Salem, was divorced from Thomas McGonell, whose place of residence is unknown, and the wife was given custody of their only child, Norma Elma, nine years old.

The plaintiff's maiden name was Sarah Barrett, and she was brought up in Leetonia, where she was married to the defendant May 8, 1903. The husband was able to earn $7 or $8 a day as a mill worker, but from the time of their marriage squandered nearly all his earnings in continuous spreeing. They lived in Duquesne, Pa., Bellaire, O., and other towns, and the wife said that wherever they have lived, her husband brutally abused her.

She said he would come home drunk in the night and would often smash in the door without waiting for it to be unlocked, drag his wife out of bed and abuse her and his child, frequently compelling her to take refuge with neighbors or call assistance. The husband was said to have tried to pawn his wife's clothes for drink, and was several times afflicted with delirium tremens. They separated twice, the last time about three years ago.

An oil well, estimated to be good for 225 barrels a day, has been struck on the William Stringer farm in the southern part of Jefferson county.

FAREWELL SERMON

By Rev. P. W. Snyder to Be Preached at Long's Run Church Next Sunday.

The resignation of Rev. P. W. Snyder as pastor of the Long's Run Presbyterian church at Calcutta will take effect next Sunday and Rev. Mr. Snyder shortly thereafter will leave for Pittsburgh to take charge of the Southside Presbyterian church.

The congregation of the Long's Run church will soon take up the matter of choosing another pastor and a call may be extended to Rev. George Stewart, who preached in the church last Sunday.

Taken to the Infirmary.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special).—Clarence Gordon, of East Liverpool, who is suffering with carbolic acid poisoning, was taken to the county infirmary yesterday.

GOOD REPORTS WERE RENDERED

Mayor and Auditor Showed Their Desire For Approved Business Methods.

CITY EXPENSES CURTAILED

The city councilmen were in good spirits last evening. They certainly had reason to be. The two reports submitted by the mayor and the city auditor showed conclusively that they have made an earnest endeavor to work for the benefit of their constituents and that they have at last succeeded in getting the city on a basis from which it can rise and in a few years be as strong financially as the rock of Gibraltar.

The report of the auditor was especially pleasing. It is given in full on another page and is complete in every detail. The code requires the report to cover the preceding five years, but the auditor explained that it would be practically impossible to go so far back owing to the haphazard manner in which the records were kept prior to the adoption of the uniform system of accounting and checking, and requested council to accept the report made for the fiscal year ending April 1, 1904, and of the year before. After the report was read the councilmen were joyous and a motion was quickly made that it be accepted. Mr. Bullock amended the motion to include a vote of thanks for the auditor, due him for his labor and untiring efforts in preparing the report. The motion passed unanimously and the auditor received personal congratulations also.

By the practice of economy the councilmen reduced the running expenses of the city nearly $5,000 and the funds instead of being overdrawn and supported by outstanding notes, are covered by bonds, which in itself decreases the annual indebtedness no small amount. The library note for $1,200, which should have been included in the big appropriation last year, has been lifted by the auditor and treasurer and will be held by them until council can see fit to appropriate the money to raise it. This saves the interest and adds materially in decreasing the debt. As a result of the close attention to the finances, the city has but $7,000 of a floating debt and the auditor in his report states that this amount can be paid before long without issuing any additional bonds. The money is that borrowed from the board of public service.

NO INDICTMENT

In the Suit Brought By C. C. McDowell Against Thomas Wright for Cutting.

Thomas Wright, charged with cutting C. C. McDowell and Jan Fong with intent to kill, was discharged by the grand jury at Lisbon. McDowell was called before the body and by careful questioning the facts were pumped from him.

The jurymen believe that he had been too intimate with Wright's wife, and it is said that one of them told him that the only objection they had to Wright's procedure was that he did not cut deep enough.

Two Cars Off the Track.

Spreading rails on the East Liverpool railway just east of the Jethro bridge caused two cars to jump the track this afternoon and traffic was greatly impaired before the cars were replaced and the track fixed.

COMMISSIONERS DO NOT APPROVE CITY'S REQUEST

Bridge Money Not Likely to Be Turned Over Unless Ordered by the Court.

A LAW SUIT IS THE PROBABLE OUTCOME

At a meeting of the county commissioners held yesterday afternoon in Lisbon it was decided not to comply with the request of Auditor Davidson and Treasurer Horton for the city's share of the county bridge fund. The decision of the commissioners was reached, it is said, upon the recommendation of Prosecutor McGarry.

County Auditor Adams was communicated with by Auditor Davidson last evening and he stated that the money would be held until the commissioners are satisfied that they have a legal right to turn it over. It seems that Prosecutor McGarry has advised the commissioners to go slow, and that he has a card up his sleeve which will keep the city out of the money. The general belief is that the commissioners object to paying the amount for fear they will be called upon to pay a like amount for years past.

The amount of money due the city at the present time is considerable, and were it to be reckoned for past years the money to be dumped into the treasury would amount to thousands of dollars. It is the belief of the city officials that the commissioners are commanded by the code to turn over the money, and if they do not do so the city solicitor will be instructed to enter suit for the money.

A SEPARATE SYNOD IN WEST VIRGINIA

Will Be the Result of Recent Presbytery Meetings—Installation in Chester.

What will probably be the last meeting of the Washington presbytery was brought to a close at Moundsville yesterday. The representatives from the Panhandle were Rev. J. R. Hosick and James Buchanan, of Hookstown; O. O. Allison, of Chester; Rev. John S. Hamilton and W. W. E. Poland, of New Cumberland, and J. F. Pittinger, of Fairview.

It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the Washington presbytery the question of this part of West Virginia retiring from the Pennsylvania synod's jurisdiction was discussed at length. It was thought another annual meeting would be all that would ever be held under the old name, and such has proved to be the case.

West Virginia will have a separate synod, and from now on it is probable will govern itself. The Presbyterian church has grown wonderfully in the state during the past few years, and has attained a high place among the other states of the Union. The district in which Chester is to be included will be called the Wheeling presbytery.

Rev. Mr. Holmes, of Independence, Pa., was moderator of the Moundsville meeting, and a vast amount of business was transacted. The call of the Chester church for Rev. Mr. Dunbar was read during the sessions, but owing to the absence of that gentleman action was deferred. An adjourned meeting of the presbytery will meet at Chester at which time Rev. Mr. Dunbar, of the presbytery will meet at Chester church.

Little Lady's Birthday.

Miss Phyllis Thompson was hostess yesterday at a very pretty party at her home on Fifth street. It was Miss Phyllis' fifth birthday and the event was appropriately celebrated by a number of little people, who enjoyed very much the games and refreshments of the afternoon. The following were present: William McNicol, Mary Taylor, Clarence Doughty, Dallas Haze, Bessie Anderson, Francis Livingston, Mary Anderson, Pauline McGinnis, Flossie Greene, Lillian Sherwood, Ruth Peterson, Pauline Campbell, Helen Campbell, Louis Hatch, Hugh McNicol, Eddie McNicol, Mary McNicol, Carrie Daughaday, Edward McNicol, Joseph Anderson, John Anderson.

Ogden-McKenna.

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Catherine Ogden, youngest daughter of Dr. C. B. Ogden, of this city, and Mr. Frank McKenna, son of Mrs. A. G. McKenna, of Hawkins avenue, Braddock, Pa. The wedding will occur in June and will be an interesting event to the society people of Pittsburgh and this city. Miss Ogden is one of the most popular young ladies of this city, and Mr. McKenna belongs to a prominent Pittsburgh family. The announcement was made at a luncheon given by Mrs. McKenna a short time ago.

OPINIONS RENDERED BY CIRCUIT COURT

In a Number of Cases Mostly From East Liverpool and Wellsville.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special).—Decisions in cases submitted were given by the judges of the circuit bench today.

In the Wellsville partnership accounting case of Daniel T. Lawson vs. William R. Wells, the petition was dismissed at the plaintiff's costs.

In the damage case of John Waber vs. the W. J. Clark Co., of Salem, which was in circuit court on error, the finding for the defendant company in the lower court was affirmed. In the case of William G. Bentley, administrator, vs. William J. Street, et al., the administrator was authorized to sell real estate free of a $3,000 mortgage held by Judge B. S. Ambler, the costs in the case to be paid out of the estate by the administrator.

A writ of mandamus was refused in the East Liverpool tax case of Moses Golding vs. Auditor J. Frank Adams. In the case of Amanda Holmes, of Alliance, vs. Lodge Riddle, of Lisbon, administrator of the estate of Robert Watson, deceased, of Knox township, which was in circuit court on error, a holding in the lower court in favor of the defendant was affirmed.

In the Wellsville ejectment case of Margaret Orr vs. Jeannette Miller, which came up on error, the lower court's finding for the defendant was affirmed.

FIGHT AT A DANCE

East Liverpool People Caused Trouble and a Man Was Arrested.

While a dance was in progress at Bloom's hall in Chester last night, Cal Bowers and John Potts, both of East Liverpool, became involved in a dispute, and in a very few minutes were knocking each other about in true pugilistic fashion.

The fight started while the people were on the floor, and the wildest confusion reigned for some time. After an attempt had been made to separate the combatants, a call was sent in for an officer. He responded promptly, and Bowers was locked up. Potts had been warned in time and escaped across the bridge before the officer arrived.

Octogenarian Remembered.

Edwin Hard, of the Hard Furniture company, was 80 years old yesterday. The employees of the store presented him a number of books, on one of which was inscribed a poem by W. G. Morris, an employee of the company. Mr. Hard and his wife have been married for 55 years.

Wyman Case Hearings.

Attorney W. K. Gaston, commissioner in the Wyman case, stated this afternoon that arrangements had not been completed for the hearing of the final testimony. He will endeavor, however, to complete every detail and have the case called for Friday.

Matter Discussed By City Officials And Agreement Probable at an Early Date.

City Solicitor George E. Davidson this afternoon communicated by telephone with Attorney Carey, of Salem regarding the ordinance passed by council weeks ago giving the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad company the right to lay and maintain an additional track in the city. Mr. Carey announced that he would be in the city before the end of the week and that the ordinance will be accepted according to legal methods.

Mr. Moon, of the city council, last evening wanted to know why the company had not accepted the ordinance. He said that the company seemed in a terrible flurry about the measure prior to its passage, but after it received the support of council the company seemed to lessen interest. He advised that the company either accept the ordinance at once or the solicitor be instructed to have the injunction pending at Lisbon enforced. The councilmen all agreed with Mr. Moon and the solicitor was asked to proceed.

Mr. Carey informed the solicitor that the ordinance had been practically accepted and that the reason for the delay was due to the change in superintendents of the railroad.

ABUSE WAS CHARGED IN A DIVORCE CASE

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special.)—In common pleas court yesterday afternoon, Sarah McGonell, of Salem, was divorced from Thomas McGonell, whose place of residence is unknown, and the wife was given custody of their only child, Norma Elma, nine years old.

The plaintiff's maiden name was Sarah Barrett, and she was brought up in Leetonia, where she was married to the defendant May 8, 1903. The husband was able to earn $7 or $8 a day as a mill worker, but from the time of their marriage squandered nearly all his earnings in continuous spreeing. They lived in Duquesne, Pa., Bellaire, O., and other towns, and the wife said that wherever they have lived, her husband brutally abused her.

She said he would come home drunk in the night and would often smash in the door without waiting for it to be unlocked, drag his wife out of bed and abuse her and his child, frequently compelling her to take refuge with neighbors or call assistance. The husband was said to have tried to pawn his wife's clothes for drink, and was several times afflicted with delirium tremens. They separated twice, the last time about three years ago.

A Good Oil Well.

An oil well, estimated to be good for 225 barrels a day, has been struck on the William Stringer farm in the southern part of Jefferson county.

FAREWELL SERMON

By Rev. P. W. Snyder to Be Preached at Long's Run Church Next Sunday.

The resignation of Rev. P. W. Snyder as pastor of the Long's Run Presbyterian church at Calcutta will take effect next Sunday and Rev. Mr. Snyder shortly thereafter will leave for Pittsburg to take charge of the South-side Presbyterian church.

The congregation of the Long's Run church will soon take up the matter of choosing another pastor and a call may be extended to Rev. George Stewart, who preached in the church last Sunday.

Taken to the Infirmary.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special.)—Clarence Gordon, of East Liverpool, who is suffering with carbolic acid poisoning, was taken to the county infirmary yesterday.

GOOD REPORTS WERE RENDERED

Mayor and Auditor Showed Their Desire For Approved Busi- ness Methods.

CITY EXPENSES CURTAILED

The city councilmen were in good spirits last evening. They certainly had reason to be. The two reports submitted by the mayor and the city auditor showed conclusively that they have made an earnest endeavor to work for the benefit of their constituents and that they have at last succeeded in getting the city on a basis from which it can rise and in a few years be as strong financially as the rock of Gibraltar.

The report of the auditor was especially pleasing. It is given in full on another page and is complete in every detail. The code requires the report to cover the preceding five years, but the auditor explained that it would be practically impossible to go so far back owing to the haphazard manner in which the records were kept prior to the adoption of the uniform system of accounting and checking, and requested council to accept the report made for the fiscal year ending April 1, 1904, and of the year before. After the report was read the councilmen were joyous and a motion was quickly made that it be accepted. Mr. Bullock amended the motion to include a vote of thanks for the auditor, due him for his labor and untiring efforts in preparing the report. The motion passed unanimously and the auditor received personal congratulations also.

By the practice of economy the councilmen reduced the running expenses of the city nearly $5,000 and the funds instead of being overdrawn and supported by outstanding notes, are covered by bonds, which in itself decreases the annual indebtedness no small amount. The library note for $1,200 which should have been included in the big appropriation last year, has been lifted by the auditor and treasurer and will be held by them until council can see fit to appropriate the money to raise it. This saves the interest and adds materially in decreasing the debt. As a result of the close attention to the finances, the city has but $7,000 of a floating debt and the auditor in his report states that this amount can be paid before long without issuing any additional bonds. The money is that borrowed from the board of public service.

NO INDICTMENT

In the Suit Brought By C. C. McDowell Against Thomas Wright for Cutting.

Thomas Wright, charged with cutting C. C. McDowell and Jan Fong with intent to kill, was discharged by the grand jury at Lisbon. McDowell was called before the body and by careful questioning the facts were pumped from him.

The jurymen believe that he had been too intimate with Wright's wife, and it is said that one of them told him that the only objection they had to Wright's procedure was that he did not cut deep enough.

Two Cars Off the Track.

Spreading rails on the East Liverpool railway just east of the Jethro bridge caused two cars to jump the track this afternoon and traffic was greatly impaired before the cars were replaced and the track fixed.

COMMISSIONERS DO NOT APPROVE CITY'S REQUEST

Bridge Money Not Likely to Be Turned Over Un- less Ordered by the Court.

A LAW SUIT IS THE PROBABLE OUTCOME

At a meeting of the county commissioners held yesterday afternoon in Lisbon it was decided not to comply with the request of Auditor Davidson and Treasurer Horton for the city's share of the county bridge fund. The decision of the commissioners was reached, it is said, upon the recommendation of Prosecutor McGarry.

County Auditor Adams was communicated with by Auditor Davidson last evening and he stated that the money would be held until the commissioners are satisfied that they have a legal right to turn it over. It seems that Prosecutor McGarry has advised the commissioners to go slow, and that he has a card up his sleeve which will keep the city out of the money. The general belief is that the commissioners object to paying the amount for fear they will be called upon to pay a like amount for years past.

The amount of money due the city at the present time is considerable, and were it to be reckoned for past years the money to be dumped into the treasury would amount to thousands of dollars. It is the belief of the city officials that the commissioners are commanded by the code to turn over the money, and if they do not do so the city solicitor will be instructed to enter suit for the money.

A SEPARATE SYNOD IN WEST VIRGINIA

Will Be the Result of Recent Presby- tery Meetings—Installation in Chester.

What will probably be the last meeting of the Washington presbytery was brought to a close at Moundsville yesterday. The representatives from the Panhandle were Rev. J. R. Hosick and James Buchanan, of Hookstown; O. O. Allison, of Chester; Rev. John S. Hamilton and W. W. E. Poland, of New Cumberland, and J. F. Pittinger, of Fairview.

It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the Washington presbytery the question of this part of West Virginia retiring from the Pennsylvania synod's jurisdiction was discussed at length. It was thought another annual meeting would be all that would ever be held under the old name, and such has proved to be the case.

West Virginia will have a separate synod, and from now on it is probable will govern itself. The Presbyterian church has grown wonderfully in the state during the past few years, and has attained a high place among the other states of the Union. The district in which Chester is to be included will be called the Wheeling presbytery.

Rev. Mr. Holmes, of Independence, Pa., was moderator of the Moundsville meeting, and a vast amount of business was transacted. The call of the Chester church for Rev. Mr. Dunbar was read during the sessions, but owing to the absence of that gentleman action was deferred. An adjourned meeting of the presbytery will meet at Chester at which time Rev. Mr. Dunbar, of the presbytery will meet at Chester church.

Little Lady's Birthday.

Miss Phyllis Thompson was hostess yesterday at a very pretty party at her home on Fifth street. It was Miss Phyllis' fifth birthday and the event was appropriately celebrated by a number of little people, who enjoyed very much the games and refreshments of the afternoon. The following were present: William McNicol, Mary Taylor, Clarence Doughty, Dallas Haze, Bessie Anderson, Francis Livingston, Mary Anderson, Pauline McGinnis, Flossie Greene, Lillian Sherwood, Ruth Peterson, Pauline Campbell, Helen Campbell, Louis Hatch, Hugh McNicol, Eddie McNicol, Mary McNicol, Carrie Daughaday, Edward McNicol, Joseph Anderson, John Anderson.

Ogden-McKenna.

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Catherine Ogden, youngest daughter of Dr. C. B. Ogden, of this city, and Mr. Frank McKenna, son of Mrs. A. G. McKenna, of Hawkins avenue, Braddock, Pa. The wedding will occur in June and will be an interesting event to the society people of Pittsburg and this city. Miss Ogden is one of the most popular young ladies of this city, and Mr. McKenna belongs to a prominent Pittsburg family. The announcement was made at a luncheon given by Mrs. McKenna a short time ago.

OPINIONS RENDERED BY CIRCUIT COURT

In a Number of Cases Mostly From East Liverpool and Wells- ville.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special.)—Decisions in cases submitted were given by the judges of the circuit bench today.

In the Wellsville partnership accounting case of Daniel T. Lawson vs. William R. Wells, the petition was dismissed at the plaintiff's costs.

In the damage case of John Waber vs. the W. J. Clark Co., of Salem, which was in circuit court on error, the finding for the defendant company in the lower court was affirmed. In the case of William G. Bentley, administrator, vs. William J. Street, et al., the administrator was authorized to sell real estate free of a $3,000 mortgage held by Judge B. S. Ambler, the costs in the case to be paid out of the estate by the administrator.

A writ of mandamus was refused in the East Liverpool tax case of Moses Golding vs. Auditor J. Frank Adams. In the case of Amanda Hoiles, of Alliance, vs. Lodge Riddle, of Lisbon, administrator of the estate of Robert Watson, deceased, of Knox township, which was in circuit court on error, a holding in the lower court in favor of the defendant was affirmed.

In the Wellsville ejectment case of Margaret Orr vs. Jeannette Miller, which came up on error, the lower court's finding for the defendant was affirmed.

FIGHT AT A DANCE

East Liverpool People Caused Trouble and a Man Was Ar- rested.

While a dance was in progress at Bloom's hall in Chester last night, Cal Bowers and John Potts, both of East Liverpool, became involved in a dispute, and in a very few minutes were knocking each other about in true pugilistic fashion.

The fight started while the people were on the floor, and the wildest confusion reigned for some time. After an attempt had been made to separate the combatants, a call was sent in for an officer. He responded promptly, and Bowers was locked up. Potts had been warned in time and escaped across the bridge before the officer arrived.

Octogenarian Remembered.

Edwin Hard, of the Hard Furniture company, was 80 years old yesterday. The employees of the store presented him a number of books, on one of which was inscribed a poem by W. G. Morris, an employee of the company. Mr. Hard and his wife have been married for 55 years.

Wyman Case Hearings.

Attorney W. K. Gaston, commissioner in the Wyman case, stated this afternoon that arrangements had not been completed for the hearing of the final testimony. He will endeavor, however, to complete every detail and have the case called for Friday.

GRAND SPRING DISPLAY

OUR RECORD

Over 1,800 Orders the First
8 Months in East Liverpool.

We have just completed our first 8 months in East Liverpool and our record is surely one to be proud of—one that has never been equalled in any city twice East Liverpool's size by any tailoring concern. We took more orders than all the other made-to-order establishments in East Liverpool put together. The best part of it is the fact that many of East Liverpool's best dressers placed four and five orders, which is evidence of satisfaction.

HOW WE CAN DO IT.

Many people are amazed at the display of Fine Suitings and Top Coatings they find here and ask us how we can possibly make such clothes for $15.00. IT'S THIS WAY: We have a string of stores in principal cities and have our own mills, thus making it possible to be tailors from mill to man direct, doing a large business on a small margin.

WHAT YOU GET

You not only get a selection from hundreds of pieces of cloth of the latest weave and shade, but you get the services of experienced cutters, fine trimmings, guaranteed fit and the Union Label. In other words, you get guaranteed satisfaction. Then we repair and press your clothes free for one year. This alone often saves customers considerable money.

tery company, left for the East last night where he expects to land some good orders. He will visit Buffalo, New York and other states. The Goodwin plant, while not running with a full force of men, is doing a fair amount of business.

GOES TO BARBERTON.

William Messer, of Chester, a popular young kilnman formerly of the ghost crew of the Union, has taken a position with the ghost crew at the Barberton plant and will leave for that place Saturday, when the crew expects to resume work.

TO RESUME.

It is likely that work at the East End plant of the American Sewer Pipe company will start again next Monday. The start has been delayed by the installation of some new machinery but this work, it is thought, can be completed in a few days.

A NEW VENTURE.

Joseph Vandine and Greenwood

Firth, of the Goodwin pottery plant, are among the latest of the many potters to branch out into the chicken business. They are going in for the high-bred variety and have imported a setting hen from Chester.

VACANT PULPITS

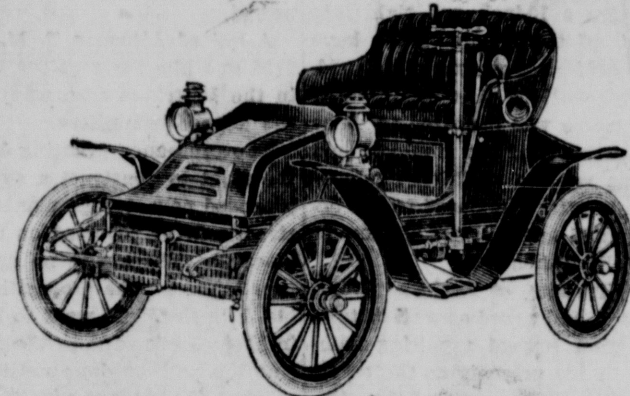

From 25 to 50 Churches Said to Be Without Pastors in This Vicinity.

There are said to be from 25 to 50 vacancies in the pulpits of this vicinity and the Pittsburgh district. The vacancies are principally among the Presbyterians and United Presbyterians. Among the number in this vicinity are the First Presbyterian, Steubenville; First Presbyterian, Wellsville; Portland, Brilliant and Two Ridges. Other denominations also suffer from the same predicament, but in a less degree.

The cause is said to be small salaries and high cost of living and the preachers are abandoning their professions for more lucrative positions. The salaries in country churches run from $600 to $1,000 per year, with city churches from $1,500 to $2,500 per year.

Rheumatism, indigestion, constipation, headache and stomach trouble positively prevented and cured by Holister's Rocky Mountain Tea. C. F. Craig.

POTTERS HOME

Elijah Eardley and Henry Tasker, the former a glost kilnman and the latter a dipper at the Barberton pottery, reached here yesterday and will spend a few days at home. The kilnmen and dippers at the plant are compelled to loaf for a few days having no ware and will wait for the biscuit kilnmen to catch up with the work. The plant promises to be very busy when all departments get to working regularly. Messrs. Eardley and Tasker are very much pleased with their new location.

A NICE DONATION.

The glost kilnmen at the Standard pottery subscribed very liberally the other day to a paper circulated for the benefit of Mrs. Martin Zwick, the sum of $7.55 being donated. Zwick was a pin boy at the K. T. & K. pottery until his mind became unbalanced and he was sent to Massillon asylum.

COLEMAN TO LEAVE.

John Coleman has taken a position as stickerup at the Barberton plant and will leave one day this week to begin work there. John is a well known young athlete, a member of the Crockery City baseball team and the Rover foot ball eleven and will be greatly missed by his teammates.

VACANT PULPITS

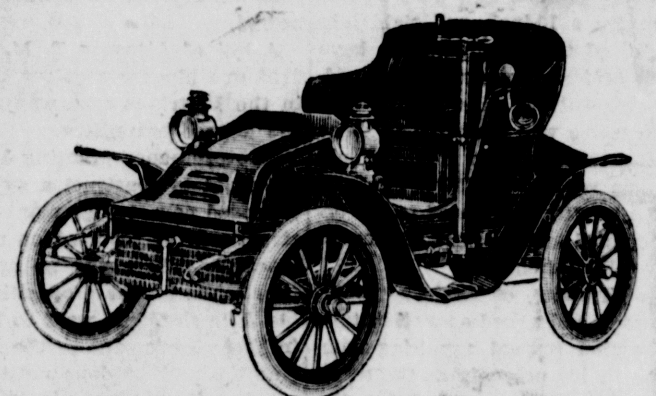

From 25 to 50 Churches Said to Be Without Pastors in This Vicinity.

There are said to be from 25 to 50 vacancies in the pulpits of this vicinity and the Pittsburgh district. The vacancies are principally among the Presbyterians and United Presbyterians. Among the number in this vicinity are the First Presbyterian, Steubenville; First Presbyterian, Wellsville; Portland, Brilliant and Two Ridges. Other denominations also suffer from the same predicament, but in a less degree.

The cause is said to be small salaries and high cost of living and the preachers are abandoning their professions for more lucrative positions. The salaries in country churches run from $900 to $1,000 per year, with city charges from $1,500 to $2,500 per year.

GRAND SPRING DISPLAY

OUR RECORD

Over 1,800 Orders the First
8 Months in East Liverpool.

We have just completed our first 8 months in East Liverpool and our record is surely one to be proud of—one that has never been equalled in any city twice East Liverpool's size by any tailoring concern. We took more orders than all the other made-to-order establishments in East Liverpool put together. The best part of it is the fact that many of East Liverpool's best dressers placed four and live orders, which is evidence of satisfaction.

HOW WE CAN DO IT.

Many people are amazed at the display of Fine Suitings and Top Coatings they find here and ask us how we can possibly make such clothes for $15.00. IT'S THIS WAY: We have a string of stores in principal cities and have our own mills, thus making it possible to be tailors from mill to man direct, doing a large business on a small margin.

WHAT YOU GET

You not only get a selection from hundreds of pieces of cloth of the latest weave and shade, but you get the services of experienced cutters, fine trimmings, guaranteed fit and the Union Label. In other words, you get guaranteed satisfaction. Then we repair and press your clothes free for one year. This alone often saves customers considerable money.

POTTERS HOME

Elijah Eardley and Henry Tasker, the former a glost kilnman and the latter a dipper at the Barberton pottery, reached here yesterday and will spend a few days at home. The kilnmen and dippers at the plant are compelled to loaf for a few days having no ware and will wait for the biscuit kilnmen to catch up with the work. The plant promises to be very busy when all departments get to working regularly. Messrs. Eardley and Tasker are very much pleased with their new location.

A NICE DONATION.

The glost kilnmen at the Standard pottery subscribed very liberally the other day to a paper circulated for the benefit of Mrs. Martin Zwick, the sum of $7.55 being donated. Zwick was a pin boy at the K. T. & K. pottery until his mind became unbalanced and he was sent to Massillon asylum.

COLEMAN TO LEAVE.

John Coleman has taken a position as stickerup at the Barberton plant and will leave one day this week to begin work there. John is a well known young athlete, a member of the Crockery City baseball team and the Rover foot ball eleven and will be greatly missed by his teammates.

AFTER ORDERS.

John Goodwin, of the Goodwin Pottery company, left for the East last night where he expects to land some good orders. He will visit Buffalo, New York and other states. The Goodwin plant, while not running with a full force of men, is doing a fair amount of business.

GOES TO BARBERTON.

William Messer, of Chester, a popular young kilnman formerly of the glost crew of the Union, has taken a position with the glost crew at the Barberton plant and will leave for that place Saturday, when the crew expects to resume work.

TO RESUME.

It is likely that work at the East End plant of the American Sewer Pipe company will start again next Monday. The start has been delayed by the installation of some new machinery but this work, it is thought, can be completed in a few days.

A NEW VENTURE.

Joseph Vandine and Greenwood

Firth, of the Goodwin pottery plant, are among the latest of the many potters to branch out into the chicken business. They are going in for the high-bred variety and have imported a setting hen from Chester.

A SON BORN.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eaton, of Third street. Mr. Eaton, who is a popular operative at the West End plant, has been treating his shopmates to cigars in honor of the event.

A HAPPY FATHER.

Thomas Hancock, one of the dippers at the Standard pottery, is the happy father of a fine girl baby that arrived at his home on Chestnut street a few days ago.

OF INTEREST TO THE TRADE.

N. A. Gardner, Gouverneur, N. Y., has been succeeded by H. H. Ryan. A deed of trust for $1,000 has been given by W. A. Cain, Columbus, Miss. The mortgagee is in possession of the store of L. A. Gregg & Co., Greenfield, Mass.

C. E. Brown, of the Hudson Department Store company, at Hudson, Mass., is deceased.

J. Parfit, the senior member of the firm of J. Parfit & Son, Holyoke, Mass., recently died.

Jos. Franklin, vice president of the William Barry Dry Goods company, St. Louis, is dead.

The Western Bar Fixture and Hotel Supply company, at Omaha, Neb., suffered a loss by fire.

Abe Lemaster has purchased the store conducted heretofore by J. O. Davis at Aurora, Mo.

S. Doepfoltz & Son, Baltimore, have purchased the stock of A. A. Brager, who will discontinue business.

The Colonial Coffee & Spice Mills, Jay Street, New York city, are offering 25 per cent to creditors.

Thomas Kelly, a dealer in furniture, etc., Washington street, Boston, has had a fire loss, fully covered by insurance.

Paul Herman Grocery company, St. Louis, Mo., has filed articles of incorporation with a capital stock of $40,000.

Bloomberg Bros., Chelsea, Mass., have dissolved. Harry and James Bloomberg will continue the business under the same style.

POTTERY NOTES.

Clifford McCray has been spending a few days with friends at Sebring. Henry Harvey has taken charge of the jumbo jigger at the Sebring pottery.

Barney Haines, a Wellsville potter who was recently married, has gone to housekeeping at Walkers.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burgess, of West Market street. Mr. Burgess is a well known potter and was employed at the Murphy plant until its destruction by fire.

PROBATE MATTERS

Orders of Court in Reference to the Settlement of Estates.

Lisbon, April 13.—(Special.)—Margaret Cassidy, widow of Michael Cassidy, late of East Liverpool, has filed an application for an increase in her allowance as the widow. The date for the hearing has not been set.

G. W. Carr has been appointed guardian of John R. Caskey, a Butler township inmate of the Massillon insane asylum, under bond of $200.

Frank Mercer, of Salem, having resigned as executor of the estate of Benedict Sprowl, late of Butler township, the court has appointed Frank B. Sprowl, with the will annexed, under $100 bond.

Public sale of lot 15 in William Wallace's addition to Columbiana by Solomon Culp, as administrator of the estate of Julia A. Fry, deceased, has been confirmed and deed ordered the purchaser, C. S. Lehman. The premises were appraised at $975 and sold for $675.

EAST END SERVICE BOARD VIEWS THE STORM DAMAGE

Work Started This Morning in Sandy Bottom and Other Places Will Be Repaired at Once.

The long looked for tour of inspection by the board of public service through the storm-damaged districts of the East End was made this morning. The party was composed of Messrs. W. L. Smith and Jacob Shenkle, of the service board, and Engineer Kelly and Street Commissioner Dickey.

A thorough investigation of the damage occasioned by the overflow of Lake run was made and steps will be taken to repair it. A force of 20 men has already started to work along the stream where it passes through Sandy Bottom and when the work there is completed other places will be given attention.

The authorities have decided that the best way out of the difficulty is to dredge the bed of the stream, free it from obstructions and make it possible for a large volume of water to be carried away. The damage was caused by the creek bed filling up. It is held impracticable to build sewers on account of the great expense and because of the great amount of drift and debris that chokes the openings during heavy rains.

PECULIAR SITUATION OF SQUIRE CARMAN

Term Has Expired, But New Commission Has Not Reached Him and He Cannot Do Business.

If the mails do not come to his rescue before tomorrow, Justice L. W. Carman will be justice in name only. His commission expires tonight and although he has been re-appointed by the board of township trustees, his new commission has not yet arrived. Until it comes he cannot legally perform the duties of his office.

The difficulty is a result of the bill to abolish spring elections, passed a short time ago by the legislature. The term for which he was elected expires tonight and he was appointed by the trustees to serve until the next election for township officers, which will be held next November. The appointment was made some time ago, but there has been some delay in forwarding the new commissions.

HAD HIGHEST SKILL

AND YET THIS WORKMAN STARVED TO DEATH.

A pathetic story of hardship and misfortune was told a News Review representative yesterday. It seems a man not far from this city was exceedingly skillful in a certain line of work, but he was so unclean in his habits that his hands were always soiled. Whenever he did a fine piece of work he would be likely to spoil it by getting it spotted and greasy. So at last no one would hire him and he grew so poor he finally died from insufficient nourishment.

"Now," said Mr. Charles T. Larkins, our well known pharmacist, "there is a parallel case to that one in the field of medicine. It is cod liver oil, which contains medicinal and curative properties to do such splendid work as a body-building, healing, strength-creating tonic medicine, and yet fails because it's greasy, and hinders these excellent curatives from doing their healing work."

"Like the workman, old-fashioned cod liver oil has 'lost its job,' and few people nowadays have any use for it or emulsions, since Vinol is rapidly taking their place. Vinol is delicious and digested with perfect ease, and at the same time contains all the genuine medicinal curatives, taken direct from fresh cods' livers. Vinol will do more than was ever claimed for old-fashioned cod liver oil, yet it is entirely free from oil and agreeable to the weakest stomach. It is guaranteed to give strength to the weak, vitalize the aged and cure stubborn colds and hacking coughs, or money will be paid back."—Charles T. Larkins, druggist.

Steuvenville presbytery. This was the important meeting of the year and business of considerable importance was transacted. Reports from the pastors of all the churches in the district were received.

Rev. Mr. McQuiston submitted the report of his church, showing the progress made in the past year. The document shows a very satisfactory and pleasing growth in membership and the excellent condition of the several auxiliary societies. The financial part of the report is also interesting, showing that the church is entirely free from debt with all current expenses, pastor's salary and contributions and assessments paid in full. Besides the stated contributions to the boards the church has given more than $300 in general contributions. During the year 53 new members were received by profession of faith and eight by certificate.

Tendered a Surprise.

Quite a number of friends of George Wilson surprised him last night by calling at his home prepared to spend the evening. It was his birthday, but he had no intimation that his friends had planned to celebrate it. The evening was spent very enjoyably in a social way and refreshments were served.

Real Estate Sold.

Charles Hanley, Jr., has closed a deal for the sale of some property in Helena to Clem Harmon, a kilnhand at the Laughlin pottery. Dr. J. Scroggins, of Beaver, was the owner and he was here this morning to make out the deed.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold McElvee, of Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. J. J. Weisend, operated on a few days ago at the Mercy hospital, continues to improve.

Dr. Grimes was called to Hammondsville to see Fred Vandyke, who is thought to be suffering with peritonitis.

Thomas Hays, who has been confined to his home on Pennsylvania avenue with sickness, is now in a serious condition.

George Smith, the East End mail carrier, who has been seriously sick at his home in Oakland, has about recovered and resumed his duties this morning.

Mrs. John Chamberlain, a highly respected lady of Dixonville, is in a very serious condition and no hope is entertained for her recovery.

A. L. Wilson and wife, who have been spending a couple of weeks with relatives at Martin's Ferry, returned yesterday. They will go to housekeeping on St. George street.

Charles Walker, of Mulberry street, who is confined to his home with a threatened attack of appendicitis, is reported better today and may not be taken to a Cleveland hospital as first intended.

Miss Charlotte Cline, of Calhoun's addition, will leave on the Ben Hur tomorrow for a visit with friends at Long Reach. Misses Nellie Moore and Nettie Goodman will go part of the way with her.

Reason Why Birds Make Toilet.

As bird fashions do not change, the lady birds of today wear the same kind of dresses their grandmothers wore and are never troubled about style. Two suits a year are quite enough for most birds, but they need to take great care of them. Each separate feather must be cleaned and looked over and the useless ones pulled out. You have seen a canary preening his feathers by lifting them and smoothing them out with his bill, and you have thought him vain to do this so often. If you neglect to comb your hair it will become tangled and look untidy, but more serious things happen to a bird who does not comb his feathers. These feathers are not packed close together, you know, but lie loose, and have places between them filled with air. When a bird wants to get warmer he lifts his feathers so that these air spaces may be larger, but if his feathers are tangled or wet and dirty he could not raise them, and soon he could not keep the heat in his little body and would die, of course.

The Sturdy Man of Japan.

The average Jap we see in Europe gives no fair idea of the physique of his people. He no more represents the average man of his people than does the boulevardier represent the French peasant.

The average Japanese man, while not tall, gives one the impression of being probably the hardest man on earth. He lives perpetually in the open air and on the simplest food. His home consists of paper screens, which never shut the air wholly out and are always open a great part of the day.

He is hardly because he has been injured to the most extreme discomfort since infancy. He does not know what comfort is. His home has practically no furniture. Matting, bedding (no bed) and a tray for food supply his wants. In a land cold beyond belief over a large part of the year he never has a coal fire, but warming himself over a box holding a few fragments of burning charcoal.—London Mail.

Origin of City Plans.

All cities, with few exceptions, trace the origin of their plan to the inclosed camp, and many still show marked features of primitive fortifications. In all early scheme for defense the inclosed square was considered the best. From the time when wagons were merely parked on the plain to the time when buildings were constructed with blank walls to the enemy, and their facades to the open square, this plan has been universally adopted, and many of the great squares or market places of great cities still show undeniable evidences of these precautions for defense. In the old city of Brussels the square upon which faces its wonderful city hall is approached by streets so narrow that they must surely have been constructed with the idea of defense in mind.—Architects and Builders' Magazine.

The Stickback Legend.

The stickback is one of the species of fish that build nests. There is a legend that the stickback builds a nest because during the deluge it pulled the tow out of the bilge hole of the ark, and if it had not been for the hedgehog, who plugged up the leak with his own body, Noah and his sons would have had an exciting time baling out their boat. When Noah found out who had done the deed he ordered as a punishment that the culprit should be compelled each year to build a nest, while other fishes would have an easy time of it.

The Drum Major.

The dignitary known as drum major was not generally recognized in the English army till the close of the reign of Charles I. Corporal punishment up to the time of William III. was executed by the provost marshal and his deputies, but afterward the drummer was intrusted with the task. Among the records of the Coldstream guards is an order that "the drum major be answerable that no eat has more than nine tails." EAST END

SERVICE BOARD VIEWS

THE STORM DAMAGE

Work Started This Morning in Sandy Bottom and Other Places Will Be Repaired at Once.

The long looked for tour of inspection by the board of public service through the storm-damaged districts of the East End was made this morning. The party was composed of Messrs. W. L. Smith and Jacob Shinkle, of the service board, and Engineer Kelly and Street Commissioner Dickey.

A thorough investigation of the damage occasioned by the overflow of Lake run was made and steps will be taken to repair it. A force of 20 men has already started to work along the stream where it passes through Sandy Bottom and when the work there is completed other places will be given attention.

The authorities have decided that the best way out of the difficulty is to dredge the bed of the stream, free it from obstructions and make it possible for a large volume of water to be carried away. The damage was caused by the creek bed filling up. It is held impracticable to build sewers on account of the great expense and because of the great amount of drift and debris that chokes the openings during heavy rains.

The damage to the First avenue bridges will be repaired as soon as possible. The street has been impassable for teams since the storm, causing a great deal of inconvenience. Much work will be required as the abutments have been ruined. The creek will be dredged and the banks repaired wherever necessary. Considerable work will be done south of Mulberry street, where properties were badly damaged.

If the mails do not come to his rescue before tomorrow, Justice L. W. Carman will be justice in name only. His commission expires tonight and although he has been re-appointed by the board of township trustees, his new commission has not yet arrived. Until it comes he cannot legally perform the duties of his office.

The difficulty is a result of the bill to abolish spring elections, passed a short time ago by the legislature. The term for which he was elected expires tonight and he was appointed by the trustees to serve until the next election for township officers, which will be held next November. The appointment was made some time ago, but there has been some delay in forwarding the new commissions.

HAD HIGHEST SKILL

AND YET THIS WORKMAN STARVED TO DEATH.

A pathetic story of hardship and misfortune was told a News Review representative yesterday. It seems a man not far from this city was exceedingly skillful in a certain line of work, but he was so unclean in his habits that his hands were always soiled. Whenever he did a fine piece of work he would be likely to spoil it by getting it spotted and greasy. So at last no one would hire him and he grew so poor he finally died from insufficient nourishment.

"Now," said Mr. Charles T. Larkins, our well known pharmacist, "there is a parallel case to that one in the field of medicine. It is cod liver oil, which contains medicinal and curative properties to do such splendid work as a body-building, healing, strength-giving tonic medicine, and yet fails because it's greasy, and hinders these excellent curatives from doing their healing work."

"Like the workman, old-fashioned cod liver oil has 'lost its job,' and few people nowadays have any use for it or emulsions, since Vinol is rapidly taking their place. Vinol is delicious and digested with perfect ease, and at the same time contains all the genuine medicinal curatives, taken direct from fresh cods' livers. Vinol will do more than was ever claimed for old-fashioned cod liver oil, yet it is entirely free from oil and agreeable to the weakest stomach. It is guaranteed to give strength to the weak, vitalize the aged and cure stubborn colds and hacking coughs, or money will be paid back."—Charles T. Larkins, druggist.

Steubenville presbytery. This was the important meeting of the year and business of considerable importance was transacted. Reports from the pastors of all the churches in the district were received.

Rev. Mr. McQuiston submitted the report of his church, showing the progress made in the past year. The document shows a very satisfactory and pleasing growth in membership and the excellent condition of the several auxiliary societies. The financial part of the report is also interesting, showing that the church is entirely free from debt with all current expenses, pastor's salary and contributions and assessments paid in full. Besides the stated contributions to the boards the church has given more than $300 in general contributions. During the year 53 new members were received by profession of faith and eight by certificate.

Tendered a Surprise.

Quite a number of friends of George Wilson surprised him last night by calling at his home prepared to spend the evening. It was his birthday, but he had no intimation that his friends had planned to celebrate it. The evening was spent very enjoyably in a social way and refreshments were served.

Real Estate Sold.

Charles Hanley, Jr., has closed a deal for the sale of some property in Helena to Clem Harmon, a kilnhand at the Laughlin pottery. Dr. J. Scroggs, of Beaver, was the owner and he was here this morning to make out the deed.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold McElvee, of Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. J. J. Weisend, operated on a few days ago at the Mercy hospital, continues to improve.

Dr. Grimes was called to Hammondsville to see Fred Vandye, who is thought to be suffering with peritonitis.

Thomas Hays, who has been confined to his home on Pennsylvania avenue with sickness, is now in a serious condition.

George Smith, the East End mail carrier, who has been seriously sick at his home in Oakland, has about recovered and resumed his duties this morning.

Mrs. John Chamberlain, a highly respected lady of Dixonville, is in a very serious condition and no hope is entertained for her recovery.

A. L. Wilson and wife, who have been spending a couple of weeks with relatives at Martin's Ferry, returned yesterday. They will go to housekeeping on St. George street.

Charles Walker, of Mulberry street, who is confined to his home with a threatened attack of appendicitis, is reported better today and may not be taken to a Cleveland hospital as first intended.

Miss Charlotte Cline, of Calhoun's addition, will leave on the Ben Hur tomorrow for a visit with friends at Long Reach. Misses Nellie Moore and Nettie Goodman will go part of the way with her.

A spring blessing for the sick and afflicted. A tonic for the whole family. Makes and keeps them well. Cleanse your system with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, tea or tablets. C. F. Craig.

Reason Why Birds Make Toilet.

As bird fashions do not change, the lady birds of today wear the same kind of dresses their grandmothers wore and are never troubled about style. Two suits a year are quite enough for most birds, but they need to take great care of them. Each separate feather must be cleaned and looked over and the useless ones pulled out. You have seen a canary preening his feathers by lifting them and smoothing them out with his bill, and you have thought him vain to do this so often. If you neglect to comb your hair it will become tangled and look untidy, but more serious things happen to a bird who does not comb his feathers. These feathers are not packed close together, you know, but loose, and have places between them filled with air. When a bird wants to get warmer he lifts his feathers so that these air spaces may be larger, but if his feathers are tangled or wet and dirty he could not raise them, and soon he could not keep the heat in his little body and would die, of course.

The Sturdy Man of Japan.

The average Jap we see in Europe gives no fair idea of the physique of his people. He no more represents the average man of his people than does the boulevardier represent the French peasant.

The average Japanese man, while not tall, gives one the impression of being probably the hardest man on earth. He lives perpetually in the open air and on the simplest food. His home consists of paper screens, which never shut the air wholly out and are always open a great part of the day.

He is hardly because he has been injured to the most extreme discomfort since infancy. He does not know what comfort is. His home has practically no furniture. Matting, bedding (no bed) and a tray for food supply his wants. In a land cold beyond belief over a large part of the year he never has a coal fire, but warming himself over a box holding a few fragments of burning charcoal.—London Mail.

Origin of City Plans.

All cities, with few exceptions, trace the origin of their plan to the inclosed camp, and many still show marked features of primitive fortifications. In all early scheme for defense the inclosed square was considered the best.

From the time when wagons were merely parked on the plain to the time when buildings were constructed with blank walls to the enemy, and their facades to the open square, this plan has been universally adopted, and many of the great squares or market places of great cities still show undeniable evidences of these precautions for defense. In the old city of Brussels the square upon which faces its wonderful city hall is approached by streets so narrow that they must surely have been constructed with the idea of defense in mind.—Architects and Builders' Magazine.

The Stickleback Legend.

The stickleback is one of the species of fish that build nests. There is a legend that the stickleback builds a nest because during the deluge it pulled the tow out of the bilge hole of the ark, and if it had not been for the hedgehog, who plugged up the leak with his own body, Noah and his sons would have had an exciting time bailing out their boat. When Noah found out who had done the deed he ordered as a punishment that the culprit should be compelled each year to build a nest, while other fishes would have an easy time of it.

The Drum Major.

The dignitary known as drum major was not generally recognized in the English army till the close of the reign of Charles I. Corporal punishment up to the time of William III, was executed by the provost marshal and his deputies, but afterward the drummer was intrusted with the task. Among the records of the Coldstream guards is an order that "the drum major be answerable that no eat has more than nine tails." In 1661 a drum major of the parliamentary army received 1s. 6d. pay per diem.—All the Year Round.

During the year 53 new members were received by profession of faith and eight by certificate.

Tendered a Surprise. Quite a number of friends of George Wilson surprised him last night by calling at his home prepared to spend the evening. It was his birthday, but he had no intimation that his friends had planned to celebrate it. The evening was spent very enjoyably in a social way and refreshments were served.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold McElvee, of Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. J. J. Weisend, operated on a few days ago at the Mercy hospital, continues to improve.

Dr. Grimes was called to Hammondsville to see Fred Vandye, who is thought to be suffering with peritonitis.

Thomas Hays, who has been confined to his home on Pennsylvania avenue with sickness, is now in a serious condition.

George Smith, the East End mail carrier, who has been seriously sick at his home in Oakland, has about recovered and resumed his duties this morning.

Mrs. John Chamberlain, a highly respected lady of Dixonville, is in a very serious condition and no hope is entertained for her recovery.

A. L. Wilson and wife, who have been spending a couple of weeks with relatives at Martin's Ferry, returned yesterday. They will go to housekeeping on St. George street.

Charles Walker, of Mulberry street, who is confined to his home with a threatened attack of appendicitis, is reported better today and may not be taken to a Cleveland hospital as first intended.

Miss Charlotte Cline, of Calhoun's addition, will leave on the Ben Hur tomorrow for a visit with friends at Long Reach. Misses Nellie Moore and Nettie Goodman will go part of the way with her.

Reason Why Birds Make Tattlet.

As bird fashions do not change, the lady birds of today wear the same kind of dresses their grandmothers wore and are never troubled about style. Two suits a year are quite enough for most birds, but they need to take great care of them. Each separate feather must be cleaned and looked over and the useless ones pulled out. You have seen a canary preening his feathers by lifting them and smoothing them out with his bill, and you have thought him vain to do this so often. If you neglect to comb your hair it will become tangled and look untidy, but more serious things happen to a bird who does not comb his feathers. These feathers are not packed close together, you know, but lie loose, and have places between them filled with air. When a bird wants to get warmer he lifts his feathers so that these air spaces may be larger, but if his feathers are tangled or wet and dirty he could not raise them, and soon he could not keep the heat in his little body and would die, of course.

The Sturdy Man of Japan.

The average Jap we see in Europe gives no fair idea of the physique of his people. He no more represents the average man of his people than does the boulevardier represent the French peasant.

The average Japanese man, while not tall, gives one the impression of being probably the hardest man on earth. He lives perpetually in the open air and on the simplest food. His home consists of paper screens, which never shut the air wholly out and are always open a great part of the day.

He is hardly because he has been injured to the most extreme discomfort since infancy. He does not know what comfort is. His home has practically no furniture. Matting, bedding (no bed) and a tray for food supply his wants. In a land cold beyond belief over a large part of the year he never has a coal fire, but warming himself over a box holding a few fragments of burning charcoal.—London Mail.

Origin of City Plans.

All cities, with few exceptions, trace the origin of their plan to the enclosed camp, and many still show marked features of primitive fortifications. In all early scheme for defense the enclosed square was considered the best. From the time when wagons were merely parked on the plain to the time when buildings were constructed with blank walls to the enemy, and their facades to the open square, this plan has been universally adopted, and many of the great squares or market places of great cities still show undeniable evidences of these precautions for defense. In the old city of Brussels the square upon which faces its wonderful city hall is approached by streets so narrow that they must surely have been constructed with the idea of defense in mind.—Architects and Builders Magazine.

The Stickleback Legend.

The stickleback is one of the species of fish that build nests. There is a legend that the stickleback builds a nest because during the deluge it pulled the tow out of the blig hole of the ark, and if it had not been for the hedgehog, who plugged up the leak with his own body, Noah and his sons would have had an exciting time bailing out their boat. When Noah found out who had done the deed he ordered as a punishment that the culprit should be compelled each year to build a nest, while other fishes would have an easy time of it.

The Drum Major.

The dignitary known as drum major was not generally recognized in the English army till the close of the reign of Charles I. Corporal punishment up to the time of William III. was executed by the provost marshal and his deputies, but afterward the drummer was entrusted with the task. Among the records of the Goldstream guards is an order that "the drum major be answerable that no eat has more than nine tails." In 1661 a drum major of the parliamentary army received 1s. 6d. pay per diem.—All the Year Round.

An Idol's Long Sleep.

In Pegu may be seen an English sentry keeping guard over a Burmese idol. The Burmese believe the idol is asleep and that when he awakes the end of the world will come. The sentry is there to prevent any one from entering the pagoda, which is his place of repose, and awakening him. His slumbers have lasted 6,000 years.

A Friendly Call.

Little Tommy—Mamma, may I go over and play with Mrs. Newdoor's children? Mother—You have never cared to play with them. Little Tommy—But my ball went over into their yard, and they threw it back to me, and it was all sticky. I guess they've got some candy.

What They Missed.

"Did you attend the Wilson obsequies?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle. "Gracious, no," replied her hostess. "Have they had some? Why, me and Josiah was at the funeral of their grandmother only last week."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Pleased For Time.

Judge Knott—Why did you rob this man in 'broad daylight? Prisoner—I couldn't help it, your honor. I had an engagement every night that week.

Delighted.

Dolly—Were you pleased when Charley proposed? Polly—Pleased? I came pretty near giving him our college yell.

MRS. J. E. FINN.

Mrs. J. E. Finn, 83 East High street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "A few years ago I had to give up social life entirely, as my health was completely broken down. The doctor advised a complete rest for a year. As this was out of the question for a time, I began to look for some other means of restoring my health."

"I had often heard of Peruna as an excellent tonic, so I bought a bottle to see what it would do for me, and it certainly took hold of my system and rejuvenated me, and in less than two months I was in perfect health, and now when I feel worn out and tired a dose or two of Peruna is all that I need."—Mrs. J. TWELVE PAGES.

Mayor Weaver's budget, published in the News Review last evening, gives a very clear, comprehensive and business-like resume of the finances of the city and makes numerous useful comments and suggestions. It is plain, as the mayor states, that in order to meet the city's obligations for the coming year and avoid inordinate taxes, the wisest economy in expenditures should be practiced by the city boards and city council. This is well understood by all interested. The saving must be in non-essentials, as the vast majority of the expenditures are fixed and incapable of being lowered. The city is not in a position to indulge in costly frills or luxuries of any sort, and it will be well for its welfare if the city legislators, when called upon to expend money in sums either large or small, scan the propositions carefully and adopt and stand by the rule that only necessary expenditures are to be thought of or provided for. The mayor's budget should be studied by every city official and then filed carefully away where it will be handy for consultation. In this way it can be made to serve a very useful purpose.

The city auditor's report, elsewhere published, is a very complete and exhaustive document and richly merits the approval it met with from the city council, which recognized its merits by passing a vote of thanks to Auditor Davidson. It is a satisfaction to know that though additional expenses were entailed by the change to the new municipal code, business methods in city affairs, despite the city's growth, have resulted in decreased expenditures. An excellent beginning has been made, and taxpayers will say with unanimous voice, Let the good work go on.

It is to the interests of the city, as well as of the bridge company, that work should commence promptly on the new bridge to Newell. To say nothing of the future prospects, the building of that structure will put many thousands of dollars into the pockets of East Liverpool workmen and East Liverpool merchants during the present season. There should be no delay on the part of the city council in passing an ordinance that will hasten the commencement of this big undertaking.

Roosevelt has captured the New York state Republican convention, but the fact is no more surprising than the familiar one that the Dutch have taken Holland. Despite Democratic predictions to the contrary, the most

Defense Against Germs

All infectious diseases are germ diseases. The germs thrive wherever there is dampness and decay. The best defense against them is to make the home so sanitary that germs cannot get a foothold. All sinks, drains, cellars, closets, and other danger spots must be kept thoroughly disinfected.

We have all the reliable fumigators and disinfectants. Each has its appropriate use. The quality of everything we supply is the highest and the price is right. Can give you any special information you need.

perfect harmony ruled in the convention, and it was solid for the president. It is going to be a Republican year in the Empire State, and Tammany Hall, Grover Cleveland, Judge Parker and Willie Hearst might as well make up their minds that such is the case.

Because the latest census bulletin gives Toledo more population than Columbus the Toledo Blade comes back at a Columbus critic in the following style: "Simply because Columbus is the state capital and is filled with convicts, lobbyists, wards of the state, legislators and state house attaches, it does not follow that it is preferred as a place of residence to a bustling, wide-awake, up-to-date business center."

The agricultural department at Washington believes it has discovered a mixture that will exterminate typhoid and malarial germs in water. If it is looking for places in which to experiment, we would suggest that the East Liverpool reservoirs probably contain bacteria enough to busy it for a while.

Grover Cleveland again makes haste to assure the world that he never invited Fred Douglass, Booker Washington or any other colored man to dinner. What difference does it make? He has doubtless dined in less distinguished company and with less worthy men many a time.

The Brannock bill has passed the Ohio legislature, as it was expected to do. It is an important and deserved concession to the temperance sentiment of the state.

Grover Cleveland wants a Democratic platform that is easily read and easily understood. Then it would never do to let Grover write it.

The Murphy Pottery company is showing its characteristic enterprise in determining to replace its burned plant by a better one without delay.

Should this weather continue a few weeks longer some of the natural gas magnates might be able to retire from business.

It never seems to have struck Bryan that some politicians have attracted attention by doing the sphinx act.

Parker evidently believes in addition, division and silence—especially the latter.

FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Miss Lizzie Cunningham is visiting friends at Sebring.

A. D. Hill has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg.

John Koonitz, of Walker, is moving into his house at that place.

George Wallace is ill with fever at his home on Basil avenue.

Bert Elliott has returned to his home at Sebring after a visit here.

S. S. Hasson, of East Palestine, is an East Liverpool visitor today.

J. Lysle has removed to Portland, O., where he will embark in business.

Mrs. Kathryn Lucas has returned to her home here after a visit at Cleveland.

Cause Delaney left yesterday for points in West Virginia, where he will buy produce.

Mrs. S. C. Arbuckle and Miss E. Huston, of St. Paul, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Frederick.

Mrs. L. Bessie Dunn is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Ashbaugh, of Lincoln avenue.

Elbert Smith has moved with his family to Hazel, down the river, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hetzel left this morning for Markleton, Pa., where Mrs. Hetzel will enter the sanitarium at that city.

Mrs. James Langhton and little daughter, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. George Wucherer, returned to their home at Pittsburg today.

Miss Anna Forbes, who has been employed with another tea firm for the past two years, has accepted a similar position with the East Liverpool Tea company.

William Linn, who has been ill at his home on Sixth street for several weeks, is not so well, and it is feared he cannot recover. He is suffering from lung trouble.

Malay Superstition.

Malays have very much the same ideas of bad and good luck signs as prevail in other countries. If one trips on the steps of his house or knocks his head against the lintel when starting for a journey he delays a day, if possible, for the accident portends death. Fearful ill luck will attend a native who starts on a journey in the rain, for the rain signifies tears. As a swarm of bees settling on or near a house in England brings good luck, so the result is the very opposite in Malay districts. A bird flying into a Malay house decidedly benefits the occupier, for, if caught, smeared with oil and commanded to fly away with all the ill luck and misfortunes of the house, all will be well.

In Singapore we see Malay cottages around us, here and there, yet few know the superstitions prevailing with regard to the building of these habitations. For instance, if the steps in front are by an unlucky chance placed exactly under the center rafters it will mean quarrels and fighting under the roof. A visitor to one of these dwellings must never lean against the steps when talking. That would entail a funeral from the house. This weird notion arises from the fact that coffins are handed to men at the bottom of the steps.—London Times.

A Joke He Liked.

In the strain and excitement of trading on Wall street the brokers, says Mr. E. C. Steadman in the Century Magazine, often relapse into wild merriment and play boyish pranks. On one occasion an old Indian with a young brave, a boy and two squaws entered the gallery. At once the "floor" put forth every effort to break down their stolidity. A war whoop had no effect. A war dance did not arouse even a smile.

At last a baldheaded man was thrust into a ring of young fellows, his hands held behind him, a knife drawn around his pate, and the mummery of a futile attempt to detach his scalp was enacted.

This was at last too much for the dignity of the aborigines. The boy broke into a broad laugh, in which the squaws joined; the young warrior grinned in spite of himself, and at last the semblance of grim humor overspread the face of the ruthless old chief, who may have been the perpetrator of as many atrocities as Geronimo.

London English a Base Jargon.

The vigor and purity of a language can only be preserved by the fashionable class, the class whom in matters social everybody imitates, speaking it well. But how can English be well spoken when some of the greatest ladies speak the idiom of Massachusetts through their noses and a large proportion of the men cough the idiom of Frankfort from their throats? The constant babbling of broken English at dinner tables and in drawing rooms is becoming quite fatiguing, and as a result the English speak their tongue worse than it was ever spoken before. Everybody knows the temptation to speak a sort of baby pigeon English to a foreigner in the strange hope that it may be more intelligible to him. This and the slang taught us by the Yankees have reduced the English language as spoken by smart people to a base jargon.—Saturday Review.

The Coast Line of the Pacific.

Although the Pacific covers more than half the surface of the globe and has an area estimated roughly at 90,000,000 square miles, yet its coast line, even including that of the Indian ocean, is but 47,000 miles, or about 8,000 miles less than that of the Atlantic. The shores of the Atlantic are very deeply indented by large seas, of which the Baltic and Mediterranean are the most remarkable. Besides these, the greatest lateral seas and gulfs in the Atlantic are the gulf of Mexico, Caribbean sea, Hudson bay and the bay of Biscay. If we take from the Pacific the Red sea, Arabian sea and bay of Bengal, which are part of the Indian ocean, we leave it with a remarkably straight coast line, with the exception of a few deep indentations on the coast of Asia.

It is owing to a free impenetration of land and water and consequent ease of communication between one country and another that the most civilized nations of the world, with few exceptions, have lived and now live on the shores of the north Atlantic and its lateral seas.

Bob Toombs' War.

General Robert Toombs was as impulsive as he was courageous. Once, in the midst of a hot political campaign, a stump orator said something about the general's arrest by Robert E. Lee for insubordination, frightfully distorting the incident. Toombs wrote one of the hottest letters of his life and was about to seal it when a friend entered his office and, seeing him much agitated, inquired the cause. The letter was handed to him to read, and when he had finished it he remarked, "You don't intend to send that to him?" "I do," said Toombs. "Better wait till tomorrow and think it over, general." "Never, sir! I have known him to be a liar, a blackguard and a thief all his life, but never before had cause to tell him so. The opportunity is now offered, and I wouldn't miss it for the senatorship. Wait till tomorrow? Think it over? That is to throw away the chance of a lifetime. Strike while the iron is hot, sir! Bob Toombs is the iron! Bob Toombs is hot! Toombs will strike!"—New York Press.

Have an Aim in Life.

Have you no aim in life? Then get one. Study over what it shall be—think, and think deeply. Pray that you may have an understanding of your work in the world, that you may see your beckoning star and that a knowledge may come to you of how to build a highway to it. The materials and tools for the building of this highway lie right at hand. They are not to your liking perhaps—you may call them trouble and bad luck—but shut your teeth together, shut your eyes, too, if necessary, and hold your breath. Then get a good grip on the situation, and then work with it. And the wonders that will grow out of doing little things well and the understanding of many things that will come to you will make you "stand amazed."—Maxwell's Talisman.

A Singular Creature.

One of the most singular looking creatures that ever walked the earth or "swam the waters under the earth" is the world famous man faced crab of Japan. Its body is hardly an inch in length, yet the head is fitted with a face which is the exact counterpart of a Chinese cooly—a veritable missing link, with eyes, nose and mouth all clearly defined. This curious and uncanny creature, besides the great likeness it bears to a human being in the face, is provided with two legs, which seem to grow from the top of its head and hang down over the side of its face.

Brides Who Perch in Trees.

Among the Lolos of western China it is customary for the bride on the wedding morning to perch herself on the highest branch of a large tree while the elder female members of her family cluster on the lower limbs armed with sticks. When all are duly stationed the bridegroom clambers up the tree, assailed on all sides by blows, pushes and pinches from the dowagers, and it is not until he has broken through their fence and captured the bride that he is allowed to carry her off.

Accidents come with distressing frequency on the farm. Cuts, bruises, stings, sprains. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil relieves the pain instantly. Never safe without it.

TWELVE PAGES.

Mayor Weaver's budget, published in the News Review last evening, gives a very clear, comprehensive and business-like resume of the finances of the city and makes numerous useful comments and suggestions. It is plain, as the mayor states, that in order to meet the city's obligations for the coming year and avoid inordinate taxes, the wisest economy in expenditures should be practiced by the city boards and city council. This is well understood by all interested. The saving must be in non-essentials, as the vast majority of the expenditures are fixed and incapable of being lowered. The city is not in a position to indulge in costly frills or luxuries of any sort, and it will be well for its welfare if the city legislators, when called upon to expend money in sums either large or small, scan the propositions carefully and adopt and stand by the rule that only necessary expenditures are to be thought of or provided for. The mayor's budget should be studied by every city official and then filed carefully away where it will be handy for consultation. In this way it can be made to serve a very useful purpose.

The city auditor's report, elsewhere published, is a very complete and exhaustive document and richly merits the approval it met with from the city council, which recognized its merits by passing a vote of thanks to Auditor Davidson. It is a satisfaction to know that though additional expenses were entailed by the change to the new municipal code, business methods in city affairs, despite the city's growth, have resulted in decreased expenditures. An excellent beginning has been made, and tax-payers will say with unanimous voice, Let the good work go on.

It is to the interests of the city, as well as of the bridge company, that work should commence promptly on the new bridge to Newell. To say nothing of the future prospects, the building of that structure will put many thousands of dollars into the pockets of East Liverpool workmen and East Liverpool merchants during the present season. There should be no delay on the part of the city council in passing an ordinance that will hasten the commencement of this big undertaking.

Roosevelt has captured the New York state Republican convention, but the fact is no more surprising than the familiar one that the Dutch have taken Holland. Despite Democratic predictions to the contrary, the most

Defense Against Germs

All infectious diseases are germ diseases. The germs thrive wherever there is dampness and decay. The best defense against them is to make the home so sanitary that germs cannot get a foothold. All sinks, drains, cellars, closets, and other danger spots must be kept thoroughly disinfected. We have all the reliable fumigators and disinfectants. Each has its appropriate use. The quality of everything we supply is the highest and the price is right. Can give you any special information you need.

perfect harmony ruled in the convention, and it was solid for the president. It is going to be a Republican year in the Empire State, and Tammany Hall, Grover Cleveland, Judge Parker and Willie Hearst might as well make up their minds that such is the case.

Because the latest census bulletin gives Toledo more population than Columbus the Toledo Blade comes back at a Columbus critic in the following style: "Simply because Columbus is the state capital and is filled with convicts, lobbyists, wards of the state, legislators and state house attaches, it does not follow that it is preferred as a place of residence to a bustling, wide-awake, up-to-date business center."

The agricultural department at Washington believes it has discovered a mixture that will exterminate typhoid and malarial germs in water. If it is looking for places in which to experiment, we would suggest that the East Liverpool reservoirs probably contain bacteria enough to busy it for a while.

Grover Cleveland again makes haste to assure the world that he never invited Fred Douglass, Booker Washington or any other colored man to dinner. What difference does it make? He has doubtless dined in less distinguished company and with less worthy men many a time.

The Brannock bill has passed the Ohio legislature, as it was expected to do. It is an important and deserved concession to the temperance sentiment of the state.

Grover Cleveland wants a Democratic platform that is easily read and easily understood. Then it would never do to let Grover write it.

The Murphy Pottery company is showing its characteristic enterprise in determining to replace its burned plant by a better one without delay.

Should this weather continue a few weeks longer some of the natural gas magnates might be able to retire from business.

It never seems to have struck Bryan that some politicians have attracted attention by doing the sphynx act.

Parker evidently believes in addition, division and silence—especially the latter.

There are lots of drug stores. You may wonder whether it makes any difference where you take your prescriptions or where you buy your goods.

Our best promise is our drug store itself. Come in and investigate it from front door to back, from top to bottom. Bring in anybody else who is competent to judge and let them investigate methods, quality of drugs, prices and everything else. FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Miss Lizzie Cunningham is visiting friends at Sebring.

A. D. Hill has returned from a business trip to Pittsburgh.

John Koontz, of Walker, is moving into his house at that place.

George Wallace is ill with fever at his home on Basil avenue.

Bert Elliott has returned to his home at Sebring after a visit here.

S. S. Hasson, of East Palestine, is an East Liverpool visitor today.

J. Lysle has moved to Portland, O., where he will embark in business.

Mrs. Kathryn Lucas has returned to her home here after a visit at Cleveland.

Cause Delaney left yesterday for points in West Virginia, where he will buy produce.

Mrs. S. C. Arbuckle and Miss E. Huston, of St. Paul, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Frederick.

Mrs. L. Bessie Dunn is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Ashbaugh, of Lincoln avenue.

Elbert Smith has moved with his family to Hazel, down the river, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hetzel left this morning for Markleton, Pa., where Mrs. Hetzel will enter the sanitarium at that city.

Mrs. James Langhton and little daughter, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. George Wucherer, returned to their home at Pittsburg today.

Miss Anna Forbes, who has been employed with another tea firm for the past two years, has accepted a similar position with the East Liverpool Tea company.

William Linn, who has been ill at his home on Sixth street for several weeks, is not so well, and it is feared he cannot recover. He is suffering from lung trouble.

Malay Superstition.

Malays have very much the same ideas of bad and good luck signs as prevail in other countries. If one trips on the steps of his house or knocks his head against the lintel when starting for a journey he delays a day, if possible, for the accident portends death. Fearful ill luck will attend a native who starts on a journey in the rain, for the rain signifies tears. As a swarm of bees settling on or near a house in England brings good luck, so the result is the very opposite in Malay districts. A bird flying into a Malay house decidedly benefits the occupier, for, if caught, smeared with oil and commanded to fly away with all the ill luck and misfortunes of the house, all will be well.

In Singapore we see Malay cottages around us, here and there, yet few know the superstitions prevailing with regard to the building of these habitations. For instance, if the steps in front are by an unlucky chance placed exactly under the center rafters it will mean quarrels and fighting under the roof. A visitor to one of these dwellings must never lean against the steps when talking. That would entail a funeral from the house. This weird notion arises from the fact that coffins are handed to men at the bottom of the steps.—London Times.

A Joke He Liked.

In the strain and excitement of trading on Wall street the brokers, says Mr. E. C. Stedman in the Century Magazine, often relapse into wild merriment and play boyish pranks. On one occasion an old Indian with a young brave, a boy and two squaws entered the gallery. At once the "floor" put forth every effort to break down their stolidity. A war whoop had no effect. A war dance did not arouse even a smile.

At last a baldheaded man was thrust into a ring of young fellows, his hands held behind him, a knife drawn around his pate, and the mummery of a futile attempt to detach his scalp was enacted.

This was at last too much for the dignity of the aborigines. The boy broke into a broad laugh, in which the squaws joined; the young warrior grinned in spite of himself, and at last the semblance of grim humor overspread the face of the ruthless old chief, who may have been the perpetrator of as many atrocities as Geronimo.

London English a Base Jargon.

The vigor and purity of a language can only be preserved by the fashionable class, the class whom in matters social everybody imitates, speaking it well. But how can English be well spoken when some of the greatest ladies speak the idiom of Massachusetts through their noses and a large proportion of the men cough the idiom of Frankfort from their throats? The constant babbling of broken English at dinner tables and in drawing rooms is becoming quite fatiguing, and as a result the English speak their tongue worse than it was ever spoken before.

Everybody knows the temptation to speak a sort of baby pigeon English to a foreigner in the strange hope that it may be more intelligible to him. This and the slang taught us by the Yankees have reduced the English language as spoken by smart people to a base jargon.—Saturday Review.

The Coast Line of the Pacific.

Although the Pacific covers more than half the surface of the globe and has an area estimated roughly at 90,000,000 square miles, yet its coast line, even including that of the Indian ocean, is but 47,000 miles, or about 8,000 miles less than that of the Atlantic. The shores of the Atlantic are very deeply indented by large seas, of which the Baltic and Mediterranean are the most remarkable. Besides these, the greatest lateral seas and gulfs in the Atlantic are the gulf of Mexico, Caribbean sea, Hudson bay and the bay of Biscay. If we take from the Pacific the Red sea, Arabian sea and bay of Bengal, which are part of the Indian ocean, we leave it with a remarkably straight coast line, with the exception of a few deep indentations on the coast of Asia.

It is owing to a free impenetration of land and water and consequent ease of communication between one country and another that the most civilized nations of the world, with few exceptions, have lived and now live on the shores of the north Atlantic and its lateral seas.

Bob Toombs' Way.

General Robert Toombs was as impulsive as he was courageous. Once, in the midst of a hot political campaign, a stump orator said something about the general's arrest by Robert E. Lee for insubordination, rightfully distorting the incident. Toombs wrote one of the hottest letters of his life and was about to seal it when a friend entered his office and, seeing him much agitated, inquired the cause. The letter was handed to him to read, and when he had finished it he remarked, "You don't intend to send that to him?" "I do," said Toombs. "Better wait till tomorrow and think it over, general." "Never, sir! I have known him to be a liar, a blackguard and a thief all his life, but never before had cause to tell him so. The opportunity is now offered, and I wouldn't miss it for the senatorship. Wait till tomorrow? Think it over? That is to throw away the chance of a lifetime. Strike while the iron is hot, sir! Bob Toombs is the iron! Bob Toombs is hot! Toombs will strike!"—New York Press.

Have an Aim in Life.

"Have you no aim in life? Then get one. Study over what it shall be—think, and think deeply. Pray that you may have an understanding of your work in the world, that you may see your beckoning star and that a knowledge may come to you of how to build a highway to it. The materials and tools for the building of this highway lie right at hand. They are not to your liking perhaps—you may call them trouble and bad luck—but shut your teeth together, shut your eyes, too, if necessary, and hold your breath. Then get a good grip on the situation, and then work with it. And the wonders that will grow out of doing little things well and the understanding of many things that will come to you will make you 'stand amazed' indeed.—Maxwell's Talisman.

A Singular Creature.

One of the most singular looking creatures that ever walked the earth or "swam the waters under the earth" is the world famous man faced crab of Japan. Its body is hardly an inch in length, yet the head is fitted with a face which is the exact counterpart of a Chinese cooly—a veritable missing link, with eyes, nose and mouth all clearly defined. This curious and uncanny creature, besides the great likeness it bears to a human being in the face, is provided with two legs, which seem to grow from the top of its head and hang down over the side of its face.

Brides Who Perch In Trees.

Among the Lolos of western China it is customary for the bride on the wedding morning to perch herself on the highest branch of a large tree while the elder female members of her family cluster on the lower limbs armed with sticks. When all are duly stationed the bridegroom clambers up the tree, assailed on all sides by blows, pushes and pinches from the dowagers, and it is not until he has broken through their fence and captured the bride that he is allowed to carry her off.

Accidents come with distressing frequency on the farm. Cuts, bruises, stings, sprains. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil relieves the pain instantly. Never safe without it.

Before the spring meeting of Steubenville presbytery adjourned at the United Presbyterian church, Wellsville, yesterday afternoon, these committees were appointed:

Students—Rev. W. M. Glasgow, Rev. J. C. Taggart, Rev. J. G. Madge.
Supplies—Superintendent of missions and Rev. R. B. Caldwell and W. R. Lawrence.

Finance—Rev. W. H. Clark, Rev. D. K. McKnight and Elders Abert and Swan.

Delegates to the general assembly are: Rev. J. G. Madge, Rev. W. H. Clark, Rev. L. L. Gray; alternates, Rev. W. B. Gillis and Rev. F. E. Dean. Elders—H. A. Thompson, Saineville; R. G. Ramsey, Scroggsfield, and J. A. Nelson, Mechanicstown.

Dr. Taggart presided as moderator.

MILL WILL START

Operations Are to Resume at Wellsville Plant in Full First of the Week.

Official announcement has been made that the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company will resume operations the first of the week. It is said the first turn will go on duty at the usual hour Sunday night.

The shortage of cars all over the country has caused the warehouses of the mill to be congested, and this has necessitated the stopping of work until much finished material has been shipped.

Maynard Gathers His Clothes.

A. G. Maynard, who was acting as superintendent of construction for the Duquesne Engineering company while that firm was working on the new pumping station, was in Wellsville yesterday gathering his clothing that had been left there when he went to Pittsburgh several weeks ago. He said he had hoped he would never have occasion to come to Wellsville again. He did not know of a receiver being appointed to take charge of the chattels of the company until he arrived here yesterday morning.

Bell Tolls Noon Hour.

After having failed to tap for several weeks, Chief Phillips, of the Wellsville fire department, investigated the cause as to why the fire bell in city hall did not toll the noon hour. Division Operator Joseph G. Moore, of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh road, was asked to look into the affair and a promise was made.

NEW BOARD TELLS OF PATROL BOX LOCATION

List of All Fire and Police Call Boxes Has Been Placed in General Station.

Note is made of the location of all the fire alarm and police patrol boxes on a new bulletin board that was placed in the central fire station at the Wellsville city hall yesterday afternoon. The number and location of all the fire alarm boxes is given in the first column on the board, while the second column is devoted to the location of the patrol boxes. These boxes will be installed soon, and will be placed according to the list already made out. They are: Box 12, located at Twelfth and Main streets; box 14, Fifteenth and Main streets; box 21, Eighteenth and Main streets; box 24, Eighteenth and Clark avenue.

The boxes and materials to be used in installing the new system have been shipped from the factory at Chicago, and it is expected that the installing of the system will begin next week. It is to be completed within 60 days, according to the contract.

These patrol boxes can be used either for calling the department to a fire, or for police purposes. This being so, the fire alarm system has been greatly increased. The system will be given a thorough trial before it is finally accepted by the department of public safety.

BADGES WILL SHOW ACTING FIREMEN

Police Will Now Be Able to Exclude All These Not Connected With Department.

At a recent meeting of the Wellsville Volunteer Firemen's association 36 badges were ordered to be distributed among the members of the department. This will be done at the next meeting of the firemen. According to Chief A. W. Phillips the work of the firemen has been handicapped because so many outsiders have got in the way of the men. The police have been unable to distinguish the firemen from the outsiders and to facilitate the work of the firemen it has been decided to present each member of the department with a badge.

Another sort of badge has been ordered which will be worn by firemen when they attend a funeral or while marching in a parade. Samples of aluminum hats and rubber goods will be shown at the next meeting of the firemen, and an order to equip the entire department will likely be given.

The date of the meeting of the firemen has been changed from Friday to Saturday evenings. Sessions will be held every two weeks.

DECIDES TO VACATE

Committee from Council Views Street on Highland Heights And Will Recommend Vacation.

One street on Highland Heights will be vacated at the next meeting of council. This has been decided by the committee appointed at the last meeting of council to investigate the request of certain property owners of that section of the city, who asked that an unused street be vacated.

While this street shows on the map of the city, yet it has never been used. It is on the hillside and it is out of the question of ever being used. Other roadways are used to get to properties on the Heights. The members of the

WELLSVILLE AND VICINITY

PUMPING STATION WORK IS STOPPED

Receiver Smith Says No Labor Shall Be Performed Until Court So Orders.

MACHINERY IS TO BE SOLD

Court Refuses to Allow Contractors to Proceed With Construction of Water Works Improvement Until Duquesne Chattels Are Disposed Of.

More delay marks the work on the construction of the new pumping station. This was to be expected. How long the delay will last no one can tell, as it may be weeks or months before any more work is done at the plant.

Monday an attempt was made to obtain an order from the court to allow the work to progress at the pumping station, as all the machinery and materials now there, with the exception of some sand, gravel and cement, are the property of Receiver Smith. The receiver notified those in charge of the work that no more labor is to be performed on the plant until the affairs of the Duquesne company are settled in the courts, so far as the Ohio cases are concerned.

Solicitor Boyd and several of the water works trustees met Monday afternoon, but the actions suggested at this meeting were of no avail. The receiver stopped the work and that is all there is to tell.

The story is told that before a receiver for the company was appointed in Ohio, Solicitor Boyd was told by the attorneys for the Mercantile Trust company of Pittsburgh that it would be unwise to have a receiver appointed, and that if this was done the city would only become entangled in additional litigation and would as a result of this suffer delay in the construction of the plant.

Supt. Ewing, of the water works, refused to speak of the action of Receiver Smith in stopping work yesterday. Few people knew of work being stopped.

When the order is received by Receiver Smith to dispose of the chattels of the Duquesne company it is expected ed that additional litigation will follow when an attempt is made to divide the amount secured by the sale. This now gives promise of being a long drawn out affair, the end of which no one ventures a prediction. The whole matter now lies in the power of the courts, and the city of Wellsville is losing much that has been gained during the past few weeks.

After the order was issued to stop using the machinery at the plant, contractors kept on with their work. The laborers were given 18 wheelbarrows and it was said today that more filling was done yesterday than ever before. All the concrete that was issued yesterday was mixed by hand and wheeled to the well hole.

It is evident that an understanding was reached between the court and the receiver, for this morning the machinery of the old Duquesne company was placed in operation again. How long this state of affairs will continue cannot be told.

MILL MEN WATCHING WORK OF CONVENTION

Reports Have Reached Wellsville That Lisbon Mill Is About to Resume After Long Idleness.

Interest is manifested in Wellsville among employees of the sheet mill over the prospects of the plant at Lisbon resuming operations. This is a seven-mill non-union plant and has been idle for a long time. It is rumored in Wellsville among mill men that the American Sheet & Tin Plate company is preparing for a suspension of operations in all its union plants. With all its non-union plants in operation and with heavy stocks of tin plate on hand a strike of tin plate workers will not seriously affect the leading producers.

The conference now on at Pittsburgh at which the proposition to make a further reduction in wages is being considered is being watched with interest in Wellsville. The men, it is said, have agreed to accept a reduction of 10 per cent in the tin plate scale and 2½ per cent in the sheet scale.

The manufacturers have so far refused to recede from the stand they have taken for a larger reduction than the men are willing to accept.

Failure to obtain a greater reduction in wages by the manufacturers is taken to mean by some workers that a strike in all the union mills in the country is almost an assured fact this season. The work of the convention at Pittsburgh is being carefully watched by all the mill employees in Wellsville.

POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOWING INCREASE

Monthly And Quarterly Reports of Wellsville Office Sufficient for Free Delivery Service.

According to the last report of Postmaster T. R. Snowden, Wellsville is eligible to the free delivery class of postoffices. The annual report of the business of the Wellsville office shows that a business of over $10,000 has been handled, and this is all that is required to secure free delivery.

During the month of March a business of $940.45 was handled. The report for the last quarter of the fiscal year shows that the business amounted to $2,903.36. This quarterly report shows a decrease of about $300 over the corresponding quarter of last year, but the annual report shows an increase of over $1,000 over that of last year.

TELL IT TO YOUR FRIENDS

"Health and Flesh Gained By Mi-o-na Without Risking a Cent," Says Druggist Will Reed.

You may be in the best of health, plump and rosy, and not in need of Mi-o-na, yet probably you have a friend or neighbor who is suffering from stomach troubles, from weak digestive organs, from thinness or loss of flesh.

Tell this friend that Mi-o-na, the flesh forming food, will cure all these ills and give a natural and normal increase in weight. Tell this friend or neighbor that Will Reed, one of the best known druggists in this section, will give his personal guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na does not do all that is claimed for it.

Druggist Will Reed takes all the risk, and a month's Mi-o-na treatment will not cost a penny unless it gives the desired health and flesh.

As an evidence of good faith, the price of a box of Mi-o-na, 50c, may be deposited with Will Reed and he will give his receipt for it, agreeing to return the money if Mi-o-na does not benefit. His agreement is perfectly reliable. He takes all the risk. Tell your friends about Mi-o-na, they will be grateful to you for putting them on the road to health and showing them how to regain flesh and happiness.

See was made by him that hereafter the bell would tap as usual. He has made his word good, and the bell now tolls at 12 o'clock.

Work on New Vault.

James E. Amedon, of Barre, Vt., arrived in Wellsville today and with Contractor Rufus Rogers will commence the construction of the new receiving vault in Spring Hill cemetery tomorrow. The tools for this work are expected to be received in Wellsville this week. It will be some days later before the granite is delivered. The excavation for the foundation of the vault is to begin at once. The material from which the foundation is to be constructed has been ordered.

Disappeared from the City.

John Mentzer, for many months employed in the boiler house at the Wellsville mill, is missing from the city and none of his friends know of his whereabouts. He made his home with Mrs. Dennis, on Third street, and she has been to the mill officials to ascertain his whereabouts. She claims he is indebted to her about $20. Mentzer drew all his money last Saturday, it is said, and has not been seen since. Some of his friends think he has gone to St. Louis, Mo.

Patrick Mulhern Dies.

Word was received in Wellsville yesterday afternoon of the death of Patrick Mulhern at his home at Ravena. Mulhern was for many years a resident of Wellsville and was employed on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh road. The story is told that he was found dead in his bed yesterday morning. He was well known in Wellsville and along the main line of the road.

Improves the Patrol.

Measurements were taken yesterday for mud guards which will be placed on the new combination fire-patrol wagon soon. As the wagon is now mud is thrown all over the seats because there is no protection over the wheels, and to do away with this the guards have been ordered.

Gas Under Eight Boilers.

Only under two of the battery of 10 boilers at the Wellsville sheet mill is coal burned. Four carloads of coal are in stock, and as soon as this coal is consumed gas will be placed under them. Then all the boilers will be heated by gas.

Improvement to Start.

Consideration will be given the new bid of Contractor H. S. Rinehart by the board of service for the cleaning of McQueen's run this week. Rinehart claims there is more excavating to be done in the run now than when the first bid was given. Because of this $50 has been added, making his bid $500. It is the intention of the board to commence at once to improve the condition of this run.

Back from Alaska.

U. V. Gaskill, of Lisbon, who has been in the Alaskan gold fields for several years, was in Wellsville this morning on his way home from Nome, Alaska. He spent the day in East Liverpool visiting friends and looking after some business interests.

New Fire Alarm Ready.

Fire alarm box No. 22, located at Tenth and Commerce street, was tested yesterday afternoon by Chief Phillips and is now ready for use. The second of the boxes will be ready for use in case of fire within a few days.

WELLSVILLE IN BRIEF.

P. M. Smith is in Lisbon attending court.

The household goods of William Chamberlain have been received in Wellsville from Canton.

E. G. Whitacre left yesterday afternoon for Chicago, where he will remain several days on business.

After spending a week at Pittsburgh visiting friends, Miss Fanny Moore returned to her home in Wellsville.

Miss Martha Henderson has returned from New York, where she spent several weeks visiting friends and for the benefit of her health.

Thomas Rolly, who was fined $20 and costs on a charge of disorderly conduct, was released from custody by Mayor Fogo yesterday afternoon. He arranged to pay the bill against him.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c, at Will Reed's, C. T. Larkins', C. G. Anderson's and J. D. Holloway's drug stores.

Immortelles.

The manufacture of Immortelle wreaths in Paris occupies at least 1,500 persons. The Immortelles are gathered about the beginning of October and come chiefly from the arid hills in the middle and south of France. They are brought to the markets in their natural condition, and the yellow blossoms are dyed green, red and white and woven into wreaths by special workmen in readiness for All Saints' and All Souls' days, when all good Parisians visit their relatives' graves. On these "fetes des morts" the gates of the cemeteries are beset with crowds of dealers in Immortelle wreaths, wire crosses and bead crowns. At Pere la Chaise alone more than 200,000 persons are calculated to visit the cemetery, and the sale of Immortelle wreaths varies from 20,000 to 25,000.—Golden Penny.

PUMPING STATION WORK IS STOPPED

Receiver Smith Says No Labor Shall Be Performed Until Court So Orders.

MACHINERY IS TO BE SOLD

Court Refuses to Allow Contractors to Proceed With Construction of Water Works Improvement Until Duquesne Chattels Are Disposed Of.

More delay marks the work on the construction of the new pumping station. This was to be expected. How long the delay will last no one can tell, as it may be weeks or months before any more work is done at the plant.

Monday an attempt was made to obtain an order from the court to allow the work to progress at the pumping station, as all the machinery and materials now there, with the exception of some sand, gravel and cement, are the property of Receiver Smith. The receiver notified those in charge of the work that no more labor is to be performed on the plant until the affairs of the Duquesne company are settled in the courts, so far as the Ohio cases are concerned.

Solicitor Boyd and several of the water works trustees met Monday afternoon, but the actions suggested at this meeting were of no avail. The receiver stopped the work and that is all there is to tell.

The story is told that before a receiver for the company was appointed in Ohio, Solicitor Boyd was told by the attorneys for the Mercantile Trust company of Pittsburgh that it would be unwise to have a receiver appointed, and that if this was done the city would only become entangled in additional litigation and would as a result of this suffer delay in the construction of the plant.

Supt. Ewing, of the water works, refused to speak of the action of Receiver Smith in stopping work yesterday. Few people knew of work being stopped.

When the order is received by Receiver Smith to dispose of the chattels of the Duquesne company it is expected.

THE DOCTOR WILL TELL YOU that we prepare his prescriptions accurately and carefully—first essentials in honest prescription compounding. No substituting, every ingredient the best of its kind in the market and the perfect checking system practiced here assure your getting exactly what is ordered—which is what you and your doctor want.

POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOWING INCREASE

Monthly And Quarterly Reports of Wellsville Office Sufficient for Free Delivery Service.

According to the last report of Postmaster T. R. Snowden, Wellsville is eligible to the free delivery class of postoffices. The annual report of the business of the Wellsville office shows that a business of over $10,000 has been handled, and this is all that is required to secure free delivery.

During the month of March a business of $940.45 was handled. The report for the last quarter of the fiscal year shows that the business amounted to $2,903.36. This quarterly report shows a decrease of about $300 over the corresponding quarter of last year, but the annual report shows an increase of over $1,000 over that of last year.

It is expected that the department will take some notice of the increase in the amount of business in this office, and will look with favor upon the establishment of a free delivery service.

NEW BOARD TELLS OF PATROL BOX LOCATION

List of All Fire and Police Call Boxes Has Been Placed in General Station.

Note is made of the location of all the fire alarm and police patrol boxes on a new bulletin board that was placed in the central fire station at the Wellsville city hall yesterday afternoon. The number and location of all the fire alarm boxes is given in the first column on the board, while the second column is devoted to the location of the patrol boxes. These boxes will be installed soon, and will be placed according to the list already made out. They are: Box 12, located at Twelfth and Main streets; box 14, Fifteenth and Main streets; box 21, Eighteenth and Main streets; box 24, Eighteenth and Clark avenue.

The boxes and materials to be used in installing the new system have been shipped from the factory at Chicago, and it is expected that the installing of the system will begin next week. It is to be completed within 60 days, according to the contract.

These patrol boxes can be used either for calling the department to a fire, or for police purposes. This being so, the fire alarm system has been greatly increased. The system will be given a thorough trial before it is finally accepted by the department of public safety.

BADGES WILL SHOW ACTING FIREMEN

Police Will Now Be Able to Exclude All Those Not Connected With Department.

At a recent meeting of the Wellsville Volunteer Firemen's association 36 badges were ordered to be distributed among the members of the department. This will be done at the next meeting of the firemen. According to Chief A. W. Phillips the work of the firemen has been handicapped because so many outsiders have got in the way of the men. The police have been unable to distinguish the firemen from the outsiders and to facilitate the work of the firemen it has been decided to present each member of the department with a badge.

Another sort of badge has been ordered which will be worn by firemen when they attend a funeral or while marching in a parade. Samples of aluminum hats and rubber goods will be shown at the next meeting of the firemen, and an order to equip the entire department will likely be given.

The date of the meeting of the firemen has been changed from Friday to Saturday evenings. Sessions will be held every two weeks.

DECIDES TO VACATE

Committee from Council Views Street on Highland Heights And Will Recommend Vacation.

One street on Highland Heights will be vacated at the next meeting of council. This has been decided by the committee appointed at the last meeting of council to investigate the request of certain property owners of that section of the city, who asked that an unused street be vacated.

While this street shows on the map of the city, yet it has never been used. It is on the hillside and it is out of the question of ever being used. Other roadways are used to get to properties on the Heights. The members of the committee of council are a unit in the thought that the street be vacated, and will so recommend at its next meeting. The property owners of the Heights propose to improve the hillside during the summer, which fact was exclusively told in this newspaper last week.

CLOSES SESSION

Spring Meeting of Steubenville Presbytery Ends Its Business Yesterday Afternoon.

Before the spring meeting of Steubenville presbytery adjourned at the United Presbyterian church, Wellsville, yesterday afternoon, these committees were appointed:

Supplies—Superintendent of missions and Rev. R. B. Caldwell and W. R. Lawrence.

Finance—Rev. W. H. Clark, Rev. D. K. McKnight and Elders Abert and Swan.

Delegates to the general assembly are: Rev. J. G. Madge, Rev. W. H. Clark, Rev. L. L. Gray; alternates, Rev. W. B. Gillis and Rev. F. E. Dean. Elders—H. A. Thompson, Salineville; R. G. Ramsey, Scroggsfield, and J. A. Nelson, Mechanicstown.

Dr. Taggart presided as moderator.

MILL WILL START

Operations Are to Resume at Wellsville Plant in Full First of the Week.

Official announcement has been made that the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company will resume operations the first of the week. It is said the first turn will go on duty at the usual hour Sunday night.

The shortage of cars all over the country has caused the warehouses of the mill to be congested, and this has necessitated the stopping of work until much finished material has been shipped.

Maynard Gathers His Clothes.

A. G. Maynard, who was acting as superintendent of construction for the Duquesne Engineering company while that firm was working on the new pumping station, was in Wellsville yesterday gathering his clothing that had been left there when he went to Pittsburgh several weeks ago. He said he had hoped he would never have occasion to come to Wellsville again. He did not know of a receiver being appointed to take charge of the chattels of the company until he arrived here yesterday morning.

Bell Tolls Noon Hour.

After having failed to tap for several weeks, Chief Phillips, of the Wellsville fire department, investigated the cause as to why the fire bell in city hall did not toll the noon hour. Division Operator Joseph G. Moore, of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh road, was asked to look into the affair and a promise was made.

PUMPING STATION WORK IS STOPPED

Receiver Smith Says No Labor Shall Be Performed Until Court So Orders.

MACHINERY IS TO BE SOLD

Court Refuses to Allow Contractors to Proceed With Construction of Water Works Improvement Until Duquesne Chattels Are Disposed Of.

More delay marks the work on the construction of the new pumping station. This was to be expected. How long the delay will last no one can tell, as it may be weeks or months before any more work is done at the plant. Monday an attempt was made to obtain an order from the court to allow the work to progress at the pumping station, as all the machinery and materials now there, with the exception of some sand, gravel and cement, are the property of Receiver Smith. The receiver notified those in charge of the work that no more labor is to be performed on the plant until the affairs of the Duquesne company are settled in the courts, so far as the Ohio cases are concerned.

Solicitor Boyd and several of the water works trustees met Monday afternoon, but the actions suggested at this meeting were of no avail. The receiver stopped the work and that is all there is to tell.

The story is told that before a receiver for the company was appointed in Ohio, Solicitor Boyd was told by the attorneys for the Mercantile Trust company of Pittsburgh that it would be unwise to have a receiver appointed, and that if this was done the city would only become entangled in additional litigation and would as a result of this suffer delay in the construction of the plant.

Supt. Ewing, of the water works, refused to speak of the action of Receiver Smith in stopping work yesterday. Few people knew of work being stopped.

When the order is received by Receiver Smith to dispose of the chattels of the Duquesne company it is expected ed that additional litigation will follow when an attempt is made to divide the amount secured by the sale. This now gives promise of being a long drawn out affair, the end of which no one ventures a prediction. The whole matter now lies in the power of the courts, and the city of Wellsville is losing much that has been gained during the past few weeks.

After the order was issued to stop using the machinery at the plant, contractors kept on with their work. The laborers were given 18 wheelbarrows and it was said today that more filling was done yesterday than ever before. All the concrete that was issued yesterday was mixed by hand and wheeled to the well hole.

It is evident that an understanding was reached between the court and the receiver, for this morning the machinery of the old Duquesne company was placed in operation again. How long this state of affairs will continue cannot be told.

MILL MEN WATCHING WORK OF CONVENTION

Reports Have Reached Wellsville That Lisbon Mill Is About to Resume
After Long Idleness.

Interest is manifested in Wellsville among employees of the sheet mill over the prospects of the plant at Lisbon resuming operations. This is a seven-mill non-union plant and has been idle for a long time. It is rumored in Wellsville among mill men that the American Sheet & Tin Plate company is preparing for a suspension of operations in all its union plants. With all its non-union plants in operation and with heavy stocks of tin plate on hand a strike of tin plate workers will not seriously affect the leading producers.

The conference now on at Pittsburg at which the proposition to make a further reduction in wages is being considered is being watched with interest in Wellsville. The men, it is said, have agreed to accept a reduction of 10 per cent in the tin plate scale and 2½ per cent in the sheet scale.

The manufacturers have so far refused to recede from the stand they have taken for a larger reduction than the men are willing to accept.

Failure to obtain a greater reduction in wages by the manufacturers is taken to mean by some workers that a strike in all the union mills in the country is almost an assured fact this season. The work of the convention at Pittsburg is being carefully watched by all the mill employees in Wellsville.

POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOWING INCREASE

Monthly And Quarterly Reports of

According to the last report of Postmaster T. R. Snowden, Wellsville is eligible to the free delivery class of postoffices. The annual report of the business of the Wellsville office shows that a business of over $10,000 has been handled, and this is all that is required to secure free delivery.

This quarterly report shows a decrease of about $300 over the corresponding quarter of last year, but the annual report shows an increase of over $1,000 over that of last year.

It is expected that the department will take some notice of the increase in the amount of business in this office, and will look with favor upon the establishment of a free delivery service.

NEW BOARD TELLS OF PATROL BOX LOCATION

List of All Fire and Police Call Boxes
Has Been Placed in General Station.

Note is made of the location of all the fire alarm and police patrol boxes on a new bulletin board that was placed in the central fire station at the Wellsville city hall yesterday afternoon. The number and location of all the fire alarm boxes is given in the first column on the board, while the second column is devoted to the location of the patrol boxes. These boxes will be installed soon, and will be placed according to the list already made out. They are: Box 12, located at Twelfth and Main streets; box 14, Fifteenth and Main streets; box 21, Eighteenth and Main streets; box 24, Eighteenth and Clark avenue.

The boxes and materials to be used in installing the new system have been shipped from the factory at Chicago, and it is expected that the installing of the system will begin next week. It is to be completed within 60 days, according to the contract.

These patrol boxes can be used either for calling the department to a fire, or for police purposes. This being so, the fire alarm system has been greatly increased. The system will be given a thorough trial before it is finally accepted by the department of public safety.

BADGES WILL SHOW ACTING FIREMEN

Police Will Now Be Able to Exclude
All Those Not Connected With Department.

At a recent meeting of the Wellsville Volunteer Firemen's association 36 badges were ordered to be distributed among the members of the department. This will be done at the next meeting of the firemen. According to Chief A. W. Phillips the work of the firemen has been handicapped because so many outsiders have got in the way of the men. The police have been unable to distinguish the firemen from the outsiders and to facilitate the work of the firemen it has been decided to present each member of the department with a badge.

Another sort of badge has been ordered which will be worn by firemen when they attend a funeral or while marching in a parade. Samples of aluminum hats and rubber goods will be shown at the next meeting of the firemen, and an order to equip the entire department will likely be given.

The date of the meeting of the firemen has been changed from Friday to Saturday evenings. Sessions will be held every two weeks.

DECIDES TO VACATE

Committee from Council Views Street on Highland Heights And Will Recommend Vacation.

One street on Highland Heights will be vacated at the next meeting of council. This has been decided by the committee appointed at the last meeting of council to investigate the request of certain property owners of that section of the city, who asked that an unused street be vacated.

While this street shows on the map of the city, yet it has never been used. It is on the hillside and it is out of the question of ever being used. Other roadways are used to get to properties on the Heights. The members of the committee of council are a unit in the thought that the street be vacated, and will so recommend at its next meeting. The property owners of the Heights propose to improve the hillside during the summer, which fact was exclusively told in this newspaper last week.

CLOSES SESSION

Spring Meeting of Steubenville Presbytery Ends Its Business Yesterday Afternoon.

Before the spring meeting of Steubenville presbytery adjourned at the United Presbyterian church, Wellsville, yesterday afternoon, these committees were appointed:

Students—Rev. W. M. Glasgow, Rev. J. C. Taggart, Rev. J. G. Madge.
Supplies—Superintendent of missions and Rev. R. B. Caldwell and W. R. Lawrence.

Finance—Rev. W. H. Clark, Rev. D. K. McKnight and Elders Abert and Swan.

Delegates to the general assembly are: Rev. J. G. Madge, Rev. W. H. Clark, Rev. L. L. Gray; alternates, Rev. W. B. Gillis and Rev. F. E. Dean. Elders—H. A. Thompson, Salineville; R. G. Ramsey, Scroggsfield, and J. A. Nelson, Mechanicstown.

Dr. Taggart presided as moderator.

MILL WILL START

Operations Are to Resume at Wellsville Plant in Full First of the Week.

Official announcement has been made that the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company will resume operations the first of the week. It is said the first turn will go on duty at the usual hour Sunday night.

The shortage of cars all over the country has caused the warehouses of the mill to be congested, and this has necessitated the stopping of work until much finished material has been shipped.

Maynard Gathers His Clothes.

A. G. Maynard, who was acting as superintendent of construction for the Duquesne Engineering company while that firm was working on the new pumping station, was in Wellsville yesterday gathering his clothing that had been left there when he went to Pittsburg several weeks ago. He said he had hoped he would never have occasion to come to Wellsville again. He did not know of a receiver being appointed to take charge of the chattels of the company until he arrived here yesterday morning.

Bell Tolls Noon Hour.

After having failed to tap for several weeks, Chief Phillips, of the Wellsville fire department, investigated the cause as to why the fire bell in city hall did not toll the noon hour. Division Operator Joseph G. Moore, of the Cleveland & Pittsburg road, was asked to look into the affair and a promise was made by him that hereafter the bell would tap as usual. He has now to his word good, and the bell now tolls at 12 o'clock.

TELL IT TO YOUR FRIENDS

"Health and Flesh Gained By Mi-o-na Without Risking a Cent," Says Druggist Will Reed.

You may be in the best of health, plump and rosy, and not in need of Mi-o-na, yet probably you have a friend or neighbor who is suffering from stomach troubles, from weak digestive organs, from thinness or loss of flesh.

Tell this friend that Mi-o-na, the flesh forming food, will cure all these ills and give a natural and normal increase in weight. Tell this friend or neighbor that Will Reed, one of the best known druggists in this section, will give his personal guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na does not do all that is claimed for it.

Druggist Will Reed takes all the risk, and a month's Mi-o-na treatment will not cost a penny unless it gives the desired health and flesh.

As an evidence of good faith, the price of a box of Mi-o-na, 50c, may be deposited with Will Reed and he will give his receipt for it, agreeing to return the money if Mi-o-na does not benefit. His agreement is perfectly reliable. He takes all the risk. Tell your friends about Mi-o-na, they will be grateful to you for putting them on the road to health and showing them how to regain flesh and happiness.

ise was made by him that hereafter the bell would tap as usual. He has now to his word good, and the bell now tolls at 12 o'clock.

Work on New Vault.

James E. Amedon, of Barre, Vt., arrived in Wellsville today and with Contractor Rufus Rogers will commence the construction of the new receiving vault in Spring Hill cemetery tomorrow. The tools for this work are expected to be received in Wellsville this week. It will be some days later before the granite is delivered. The excavation for the foundation of the vault is to begin at once. The material from which the foundation is to be constructed has been ordered.

Disappeared from the City.

John Mentzer, for many months employed in the boiler house at the Wellsville mill, is missing from the city and none of his friends know of his whereabouts. He made his home with Mrs. Dennis, on Third street, and she has been to the mill officials to ascertain his whereabouts. She claims he is indebted to her about $20. Mentzer drew all his money last Saturday, it is said, and has not been seen since. Some of his friends think he has gone to St. Louis, Mo.

Patrick Mulhern Dies.

Word was received in Wellsville late yesterday afternoon of the death of Patrick Mulhern at his home at Ravenna. Mulhern was for many years a resident of Wellsville and was employed on the Cleveland & Pittsburg road. The story is told that he was found dead in his bed yesterday morning. He was well known in Wellsville and along the main line of the road.

Improves the Patrol.

Measurements were taken yesterday for mud guards which will be placed on the new combination fire-patrol wagon soon. As the wagon is now mud is thrown all over the seats because there is no protection over the wheels, and to do away with this the guards have been ordered.

Gas Under Eight Boilers.

Only under two of the battery of 10 boilers at the Wellsville sheet mill is coal burned. Four carloads of coal are in stock, and as soon as this coal is consumed gas will be placed under them. Then all the boilers will be heated by gas.

Improvement to Start.

Consideration will be given the new bid of Contractor H. S. Rinehart by the board of service for the cleaning of McQueen's run this week. Rinehart claims there is more excavating to be done in the run now than when the first bid was given. Because of this $50 has been added, making his bid

Local Poultry Clubs May Combine And Hold a Show Here Next Fall.

Not in the history of East Liverpool has greater interest been taken in raising game and fancy chickens, and scores of people have lately become chicken fanciers. So great is the interest that the local organizations, three in number, and containing many members, have decided to arrange for an exhibition here this fall.

It is reported that an effort will be made to consolidate the three clubs, known as the East End Poultry club, the Crookery City Poultry club and the Game Bantam Poultry club. The plan is said to be favored by leading members of the clubs and will likely be effected.

Blind Horses on Grand Circuit.

Two blind horses will be raced in the fast classes on the grand circuit this season, the trotting stallion Rhythmic, 2:06 1/2, winner of the $10,000 M. & M. stake at Detroit in 1902, and the pacing stallion Elastic Pointer, 2:06 1/2, winner of the $5,000 Chamber of Commerce stake at Detroit in 1903. The former is still in Scott Hudson's stable, while Elastic Pointer will again be in charge of John Hussey, the only trainer that has been able to make the blind brother of Star Pointer race consistently.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

The Geneva College Athletic association has sent out invitations to other colleges in that vicinity to participate in a field meet at Geneva field on May 19.

E. L. Grant, one of Harvard's most promising players, has been dumped from the base ball team for playing for his board and clothes with South Carolina professionals last year.

Coach Stagg, of the University of Chicago, has exacted a signed pledge from all of the candidates for the varsity base ball team, that the members will not drink, smoke or gamble.

The stallion Dillon Boy, 2:09 1/2, raced in 1902 as Baron Dillon, Jr., has been sold for export to Austria, price $6,000. He is the eleventh trotting stallion

Frank G. Chalfant, formerly of Steubenville, has opened the Lark club house at Agua Caliente Springs, Sonoma county, California. It is a summer resort for sportsmen, with shooting, fishing, trap grounds, rifle range, etc.

The stakes for the grand circuit meeting at Columbus will be as follows: 2:10 and 2:23 class trotting, and 2:08, 2:19 and 2:24 class pacing, each event worth $2,000. All told, $20,000 is offered in purses.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by Alvin D. Baizer.

NEGRO IS DISCUSSED.

Old Question Brought Up Again in House of Representatives.

Washington, April 13.—The race question again was injected into the proceedings of the house of representatives when Mr. Scott of Kansas delivered a long address in which he referred to his previous statement that it was current in Kansas City that ex-President Cleveland had dined C. H. J. Taylor, a Kansas negro politician. He read several letters from Kansas citizens that it had been Taylor's boast that he had received such social attention from Mr. Cleveland. He also said that Mr. Cleveland, while governor of New York, had signed a bill providing for mixed schools.

In a spirited reply, Mr. Williams of Mississippi, the minority leader, defended the attitude of the south toward the negro, and said that discussion of the race question by the Republicans was an old game by which the Republican party when confronted with issues that threatened its supremacy, began to wave the bloody shirt.

At the instance of Mr. Bartlett of Georgia a letter from ex-President Cleveland was read, denying that he had ever dined a negro. Mr. Bartlett also declared Judge Parker of New York to be the man whom the Democrats will nominate for President.

The senate passed the postoffice appropriation bill after a spirited debate, all amendments offered by the Democrats being voted down.

STRIKE LASTS 10 MINUTES.

Chicago Butchers Secure Quick Concessions from Employers.
Chicago, April 13.—A strike of 10 minutes' duration occurred at the plant of Swift & Co. here to-day. Five hundred cattle butchers walked out. Almost at the moment, however, word came from a meeting then in session between the union officials and the employers that a settlement had been reached and the men returned to work.
One hundred employees who had been laid off and whom the union charged, had been picked with reference to their membership in the butchers' union, were reinstated by the company.

PREMIER IS ATTACKED

Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs Wounded by Assassin's Knife.

HIS INJURY NOT DANGEROUS

Anarchist Attempts to Revenge Alleged Wrongs to Workingmen of Catalonia—Deed Followed Distribution of Money to Poor.

Barcelona, April 13.—Premier Maura was attacked and wounded by a would-be assassin, armed with a dagger, while leaving the palace of the council general.

Premier Maura is very unpopular in Catalonia owing to his firm attitude in suppressing labor disorders, and he had been warned that it would be dangerous for him to accompany King Alfonso. The attack, from which he fortunately escaped with only a trifling wound, was made just after he, at the king's command, had distributed 3,000 pesetas to the poor at the local council building.

Various conflicting reports of what happened spread rapidly. It appears that Premier Maura had just entered his carriage when the attempt upon his life was made. He was able to alight without assistance and to return to the council building. The king afterward visited him there.

Premier Maura having described the attack, King Alfonso informed him that he had witnessed the scene of disorder from his windows, but had not suspected that there was an attempt upon the premier's life.

The premier was able to converse by telephone with his wife at Madrid, after which, on his physician's imperative orders, he went to bed.

Artao was examined and declared that he had no accomplices, but had acted on his own initiative because of his hatred of Maura's policies. He said he had been studying sculpture at the studio of the famous sculptor Nadal, whose brother was formerly mayor of Barcelona.

A semi-official report of the attack on Premier Maura says the assailant held concealed a kitchen knife, with which he stabbed the premier, but the force of the blow was broken and its direction diverted by the heavy lace on the minister's coat, resulting in only a slight scratch under the sixth rib. A doctor attached to King Alfonso's suite examined the premier and prescribed a few hours' rest. His majesty sent a messenger to inquire concerning the attack and as to the prime minister's condition.

Joaquin Miguel Artao, the assailant, was employed as a domestic. He is an anarchist and when arrested attempted suicide by dashing his head against the wall.

According to another account the premier coolly drew the knife from his clothing and threw it on a seat in his carriage, after which he entered the palace, walked up stairs and telephoned to Minister of the Interior Guerra at Madrid, saying: "I have been stabbed. Don't be alarmed. The wound is not serious."

LESSONS IN WALKING.

Lolita Armour Goes to Vienna to Learn of Dr. Lorenz.

New York, April 13.—Eight-year-old Lolita Armour, the first patient operated on in this country by Prof. Adolf Lorenz, the famous "bloodless surgeon," with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ogden Armour of Chicago, was a passenger on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II, which sailed to-day for Bremen.

The Armours will go immediately to Vienna, where little Lolita will be taught the art of walking under the direct supervision of Prof. Lorenz. The child has been able to walk for nearly a year and even has been taught dancing, but as yet has not acquired complete control of her powers of locomotion.

KILLED HIS FIANCEE.

Jealous Lover Shoots Her Dead and Commits Suicide.

Batavia, N. Y., April 13.—Clyde Ore, 35 years old, who hails from Wisconsin, shot and killed Addie Blossom, 23 years of age, and then killed himself. The tragedy occurred on the street near the girl's home. Ore met her and without a word drew a revolver and fired. His aim was true and the girl fell with a bullet through the head, dying soon afterward. Ore then drank carbolic acid and sent a bullet into his brain.

Ore and the girl were to have been married two weeks ago. On that day, however, a rival appeared who claimed the girl was engaged to him. There was a disturbance at the Blossom home and the girl's parents begged her to refrain from marrying Ore and the minister refused to perform the ceremony. Ore was believed to have gone to his home in Wisconsin, but he returned. In his pocket was a letter from Addie Blossom in which she said she wanted to hear from him.

PHYSICAL HOUSE-CLEANING

A Thorough Cleansing of the System Now is the Surest Protection Against Spring and Summer Sickness.

No good house keeper ever neglects Spring cleaning. With plenty of soap and water, hard scrubbing and scouring, sunlight and air, she soon gets rid of all rubbish, musty odors, germs and microbes, and the dust and dirt that have accumulated during the long winter months. But when the house has been put in order, and the premises cleared of all old plunder and trash, the great majority of house keepers feel that Spring cleaning is over, and forget that their systems may be in a worse condition than the house, and that the bad feelings, debility, loss of appetite, nervousness and sleeplessness from which they are suffering are due to neglect of the more important and necessary work of Physical house cleaning. A clean house does not insure against disease, but a clean system does. The poisons and humors engendered within the body, the waste matter that is clogging the system and contaminating and vitiating the blood, are far more dangerous to health than the dirt and dust of our homes. In the winter time we give free rein to our appetites, and eat more and oftener than is for our good. We inhale the polluted air of badly ventilated offices and rooms, take little or no exercise, and our bodies become a veritable hot-bed of disease-bearing germs, and our blood is loaded with impurities and poisons of every conceivable kind; and no wonder that Spring time is so often Sick time and finds us in such poor physical condition, with vitality slowly wasting away, our digestion impaired, the liver torpid, and all the bodily organs over-worked and out of repair. Unless our systems are given a thorough cleaning, and the blood purged and purified, the simplest malady may develop into some serious disorder or end in chronic invalidism, and often the pent-up impurities, poisons and humors break out through the skin, and all through the Spring and Summer you are tormented with boils, itchy rashes, sores, bumps and pimples, and all manner of ugly pustular and scaly eruptions.

Physical house cleaning should begin with the blood. It must be purified and strengthened, and when a stream of pure, rich blood is turned into all the nooks and corners of the system, the rubbish and disease-producing poisons are washed out, and the congested channels and avenues of the body are opened, and Physical house cleaning is made thorough and complete. S. S. S. cleanses the blood of taints and poisons and expels the waste and rubbish from the system. It is to the system what soap and water are to the house. Nothing else so quickly removes the stubborn, deeply-rooted poisons and humors that are destroying the purity of the blood and blocking the avenues of health and life.

A course of S. S. S. now will put your system in perfect order and fortify you against the debilitating diseases and aggravating skin troubles that are sure to come if your physical welfare has been neglected. S. S. S. is not only the best of all blood purifiers, but an unequalled tonic and appetizer. It builds you up, improves the appetite, and aids the digestion and assimilation of food, and keeps the system in a healthy, vigorous condition. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and can be taken by the old, middle-aged and young without danger of any harmful effects. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined, a perfect Spring medicine and indispensable in Physical house cleaning. Write us fully about your case. No charge for medical advice.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GA.

Twenty Million Catarrh Victims! CAN YOU REALIZE IT? ARE YOU ONE OF THEM?

And every victim caught it from some one else. BRAZILIAN BALM A POSITIVE CURE. Cheapest and best remedy on earth. A $1.00 bottle gives One Month's treatment. A Tonic and Strength Builder FREE with every $1.00 Bottle.

If Twenty Millions of our people had Smallpox, Typhoid Fever or Cholera, what a cyclone of excitement and horror would sweep over the land. What a rush to get away from it, and what a mighty effort would be made to stamp it out.

Yet CATARRH is worse than either of them. They do their work quick and it is over; while Catarrh hangs on forever and leads to sure death in some form unless the germs are destroyed and driven from the system. These germs or microbes entrench themselves in the deep and tortuous passages of the head. Brazilian Balm boldly attacks them in their stronghold and compels a surrender of the last microbe. With the head rotting away, the whole system soon becomes impregnated. It is the parent of nearly every other disease.

Forty Years Ago

There were less than 10,000 Catarrh Victims in the land. Today there are over twenty million. It has become the NATIONAL DISEASE. Catarrh is everywhere. In every city, town and hamlet. On every mountain, in every valley and plain; in forest and prairie. The rich, the poor, the business man, the mechanic, the laborer, the mistress of the household, no class, no sex, no station. It is the universal malady, the yellow destroyer, the disease that is the parent of nearly all other diseases, the slow but sure yellow death, the curse of the land.

Urgency.

Something must be done to arrest this rapidly spreading scourge and done quickly. Each individual must wake up, each community must wake up, the Nation must wake up and take prompt action to stay the progress of the plague. The cure remedy that has been found able to cope with this purit disease and stay its ravages is Brazilian Balm. For 15 years its march has been a march of triumph. Its cures are permanent and are numbered by the tens of thousands. For every disease the good Father has given a sure antidote if we can find it. The antidote for Catarrh has been found in Brazilian Balm. It destroys the catarrh microbe. It clears the head of foul mucus; it makes the breath and discharges immune (non-contagious);

Economy

It will not cost you $5.00 or $10.00 a month. A $1.00 bottle of Brazilian Balm contains a whole month's treatment, and from this on for six months we will wrap with each $1.00 bottle a month's treatment of POISONOUS TABLETS. These tablets are a great tonic; they wake up the liver, aid digestion, strengthen the nerves and give vitality to every organ. No such offer to sufferers from Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption and Stomach troubles was ever made before. Summer is the best time to treat Catarrh, as it is not so violent as in winter. B. F. JACKSON & CO., Mfg. Chemists, Indianapolis, Indiana.

PHYSICAL HOUSE-CLEANING

A Thorough Cleansing of the System
Now is the Surest Protection Against Spring and Summer Sickness.

No good house keeper ever neglects Spring cleaning. With plenty of soap and water, hard scrubbing and scouring, sunlight and air, she soon gets rid of all rubbish, musty odors, germs and microbes, and the dust and dirt that have accumulated during the long winter months. But when the house has been put in order, and the premises cleared of all old plunder and trash, the great majority of house keepers feel that Spring cleaning is over, and forget that their systems may be in a worse condition than the house, and that the bad feelings, debility, loss of appetite, nervousness and sleeplessness from which they are suffering are due to neglect of the more important and necessary work of Physical house cleaning. A clean house does not insure against disease, but a clean system does. The poisons and humors engendered within the body, the waste matter that is clogging the system and contaminating and vitiating the blood, are far more dangerous to health than the dirt and dust of our homes. In the winter time we give free rein to our appetites, and eat more and oftener than is for our good. We inhale the polluted air of badly ventilated offices and rooms, take little or no exercise, and our bodies become a veritable hot-bed of disease-bearing germs, and our blood is loaded with impurities and poisons of every conceivable kind; and no wonder that Spring time is so often Sick time and finds us in such poor physical condition, with vitality slowly wasting away, our digestion impaired, the liver torpid, and all the bodily organs over-worked and out of repair. Unless our systems are given a thorough cleaning, and the blood purged and purified, the simplest malady may develop into some serious disorder or end in chronic invalidism, and often the pent-up impurities, poisons and humors break out through the skin, and all through the Spring and Summer you are tormented with boils, itchy rashes, sores, bumps and pimples, and all manner of ugly pustular and scaly eruptions.

Physical house cleaning should begin with the blood. It must be purified and strengthened, and when a stream of pure, rich blood is turned into all the nooks and corners of the system, the rubbish and disease-producing poisons are washed out, and the congested channels and avenues of the body are opened, and Physical house cleaning is made thorough and complete. S. S. S. cleanses the blood of taints and poisons and expels the waste and rubbish from the system. It is to the system what soap and water are to the house. Nothing else so quickly removes the stubborn, deeply-rooted poisons and humors that are destroying the purity of the blood and blocking the avenues of health and life.

A course of S. S. S. now will put your system in perfect order and fortify you against the debilitating diseases and aggravating skin troubles that are sure to come if your physical welfare has been neglected. S. S. S. is not only the best of all blood purifiers, but an unequalled tonic and appetizer. It builds you up, improves the appetite, and aids the digestion and assimilation of food, and keeps the system in a healthy, vigorous condition. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and can be taken by the old, middle-aged and young without danger of any harmful effects. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined, a perfect Spring medicine and indispensable in Physical house cleaning. Write us fully about your case. No charge for medical advice.

Twenty Million Catarrh Victims! CAN YOU REALIZE IT? ARE YOU ONE OF THEM?

And every victim caught it from some one else. BRAZILIAN BALM A POSITIVE CURE.
Cheapest and best remedy on earth. A $1.00 bottle gives One Month's treatment. A Tonic and Strength Builder FREE with every $1.00 Bottle.

If Twenty Millions of our people had Syphilis, Typhoid Fever or Cholera, what a cyclone of excitement and horror would sweep over the land. What a rush to get away from it, and what a mighty effort would be made to stamp it out.

Yet CATARRH is worse than either of them. They do their work quick and it is over; while Catarrh hangs on forever and leads to sure death in some form unless the germs are destroyed and driven from the system. These germs or microbes entrench themselves in the deep and tortuous passages of the head. Brazilian Balm boldly attacks them in their stronghold and compels a surrender of the last microbes. With the head rotting away, the whole system soon becomes impregnated. It is the parent of nearly every other disease.

Forty Years Ago

There were less than 10,000 Catarrh Victims in the land. Today there are over twenty million. It has become the NATIONAL DISEASE. Catarrh is everywhere. In every city, town and hamlet, on every mountain, in every valley and plain; in forest and prairie. The rich, the poor, the business man, the mechanic, the laborer, the mistress, the maid; it knows no class, no sex, no station. It is the universal malady, the yellow destroyer, the disease that is the parent of nearly all other diseases, the slow but sure yellow death, the curse of the land.

Urgency.

Something must be done to arrest this rapidly spreading scourge and done quickly. Each individual must wake up, each community must wake up, the Nation must wake up and take prompt action to stay the progress of the plague. The one remedy that has been found able to cope with this putrid disease and stay its ravages is BRAZILIAN BALM. For 15 years its march has been a march of triumph. Its cures are permanent and are numbered by the tens of thousands. For every disease the good Father has given a sure antidote if we can find it. The antidote for Catarrh has been found in Brazilian Balm. It destroys the catarrh microbe. It clears the head of foul mucus; it makes the breath and discharges immune (non-contagious).

relieves the headache and gradually heals the ulcers, the running sores in the head, thus stopping the dripping into the throat. At the same time the cough, the asthma, and bronchitis and sore throat will disappear, also all stomach trouble, caused by constant swallowing of the putrid Catarrh pus. And as your Catarrh disappears all your weakness will change to strength and vitality and you will be like your old self again.

Economy

It will not cost you $5.00 or $10.00 a month. A $1.00 bottle of Brazilian Balm contains a whole month's treatment, and from this on for six months we will wrap with each $1.00 bottle a month's treatment of TOXICOLA TABLETS. These tablets are a great tonic; they wake up the liver, aid digestion, strengthen the nerves and give vitality to every organ. No sufferer from Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption and Stomach troubles was ever made before. Summer is the best time to treat Catarrh, as it is not so violent as in winter. B. F. JACKSON & CO., Mfg. Chemists, Indianapolis, Indiana.

AT THE THEATRE

At the Grand tonight, Theodore Kremer's fine melodrama, "The Fatal Wedding," which is one of the most successful plays of the past decade. The play is produced under the personal supervision of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, and the scenic effects are on an unusually elaborate scale.

In her new play, "The Triumph of An Empress," which she will present at the Grand next Saturday night, and in which she is to create and portray the wonderful character of the Empress Catherine the Great of Russia, Miss Mildred Holland has a role which is exactly fitted to her personality and talents.

The Bros. Byrne with a superior company will present the new "Eight Bells" at the Grand, April 21. Wait for it.

Accused of Theft.

John Tasker was placed in jail last evening on a charge of stealing an overcoat at the saloon of Stella Mears, Broadway. He will be given a hearing tomorrow.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN RATTLER

Presented J. Howard Maxwell, Caused Excitement on a Train From Wheeling.

The delegation representing Hancock county at the congressional convention at Wheeling yesterday, returned on the evening train. They joined the delegates to the Washington presbytery meeting at Wheeling, and so far as the Chester contingent was concerned the companionship was anything but congenial.

It was announced through the train soon after it reached Wheeling that J. Howard Maxwell, one of the congressional delegates from Chester, was afflicted with "snake." The Hancock county Presbyterians were horrified, and did their best to avoid the politicians, but they were finally thrown together. Then it was learned that it was not the disease which ailed Mr. Maxwell, but some friend had presented him with a fine specimen of the Rocky Mountain rattler. The reptile will probably be placed on exhibition at Rock Springs.

Wellsburg Goes Wet.

The voters of Wellsburg yesterday decided to have licensed houses. The "wets" had a majority of 31 votes, and it was their first victory in four years. The voters also decided to issue $12,000 in bonds for the purpose of building a water works system for the new Fourth ward. Only one Democrat, John Ralston, a councilman, was elected. All the others were Republicans, as follows: Council Charles Dare, J. C. Reed, Solomon Colds, W. M. Matthews, John Fisher, David Shively and Harry Kelly; city clerk, Charles Clark.

Treated at the Hospital.

Mrs. Helen Butterworth, who resides in the upper part of Chester, has been suffering for some time with a complication of diseases. Her physician advised an operation several days ago as the only possible chance of saving her life. Yesterday the lady was taken to the Taylor hospital at East Liverpool and the information was given out today that the operation had been performed and that it was in every way satisfactory. It is likely the lady will be brought to her home on this side of the river in a few days.

A Widow Burned Out.

A disastrous fire occurred in Chester at 7 o'clock this morning when the residence of Mrs. Kate Grim, residing in the lower part of town, was burned to the ground. There was no one at home at the time and the loss will be complete. Mrs. Grim is a widow and everything she owned was consumed by the flames, which burned fiercely and without interruption. The house was partially insured, but it is said there was nothing on the household furniture.

Will Locate in Chester.

Dr. Frank Bassett, who was in Chester yesterday looking up a location for a dental office, has decided to open offices in the C. T. McCutcheon building over the drug store. The location is a most desirable one, and the doctor will undoubtedly make a success in his new field. He formerly practiced in Wheeling.

Successful Bazaar.

The first night of the bazaar being conducted by the ladies of the First Christian church at Rock Springs pavilion was a complete success. Elaborate preparations had been made for the event, and the program was interesting and well received. The second and final entertainment will be given this evening.

Pointing Out the Moral

There is one merchant in every town who is the leader. The people like to patronize him—his competitors envy him. Some call it luck—but it's foresight. Good honest goods at a fair price—he has and holds the confidence of the people.

Aside from our shoe department, we wish to call your attention to the largest Trunk and Grip store in East Liverpool. Our Trunks, Valises and Suit Cases are confidence getters. They point out the moral of business success.

THE ONLY STORE IN THE CITY WITH AN EXCLUSIVE SHOE PARLOR FOR LADIES. THE FINEST EQUIPPED SHOE AND TRUNK STORE IN EAST LIVERPOOL.

Mrs. Jane F. Baxter.

Mrs. Jane F. Baxter, aged 71 years, died at 6 o'clock this morning at her home on Jackson street from congestion. Mrs. Baxter had been in poor health for a year, but her condition did not become serious until yesterday noon. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made, pending the arrival here of several of the children. The interment will be made at New Brighton. Mrs. Baxter was a member of the First Presbyterian church and was very highly respected. She had been a resident of East Liverpool for about 15 years and had a large circle of friends. The surviving children are Charles Baxter, of Cleveland; Carter Baxter, of St. Marys, O.; John Baxter, of Tiffin; Perzie Baxter, and Miss Kate Baxter, of this city.

The Republican electors of the Eighteenth Congressional District of Ohio are hereby notified that a convention, to place in nomination a candidate to represent said District, will be held at Canton, Ohio, May 11, 1904, at 11 a. m. The delegations from the several counties will be selected upon the basis of the vote cast for governor in 1903, viz. One delegate for each one hundred votes, or one for each fraction of fifty or over:

Pointing Out the Moral

There is one merchant in every town who is the leader. The people like to patronize him—his competitors envy him. Some call it luck—but it's foresight. Good honest goods at a fair price—he has and holds the confidence of the people.

Aside from our shoe department, we wish to call your attention to the largest Trunk and Grip store in East Liverpool. Our Trunks, Valises and Suit Cases are confidence getters. They point out the moral of business success.

THE ONLY STORE IN THE CITY WITH AN EXCLUSIVE SHOE PARLOR FOR LADIES. THE FINEST EQUIPPED SHOE AND TRUNK STORE IN EAST LIVERPOOL.

Mrs. Jane F. Baxter.

Mrs. Jane F. Baxter, aged 71 years, died at 6 o'clock this morning at her home on Jackson street from congestion. Mrs. Baxter had been in poor health for a year, but her condition did not become serious until yesterday noon. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made, pending the arrival here of several of the children. The interment will be made at New Brighton. Mrs. Baxter was a member of the First Presbyterian church and was very highly respected. She had been a resident of East Liverpool for about 15 years and had a large circle of friends. The surviving children are Charles Baxter, of Cleveland; Cartez Baxter, of St. Marys, O.; John Baxter, of Tiffin; Perzie Baxter, and Miss Kate Baxter, of this city.

AT THE THEATER

At the Grand tonight, Theodore Kremer's fine melo-drama, "The Fatal Wedding," which is one of the most successful plays of the past decade. The play is produced under the personal supervision of Sullivan, Harris & Woods, and the scenic effects are on an unusually elaborate scale.

In her new play, "The Triumph of An Empress," which she will present at the Grand next Saturday night, and in which she is to create and portray the wonderful character of the Empress Catherine the Great of Russia, Miss Mildred Holland has a role which is exactly fitted to her personality and talents.

The Bros. Byrne with a superior company will present the new "Eight Bells" at the Grand, April 21. Wait for it.

Accused of Theft.

John Tasker was placed in jail last evening on a charge of stealing an overcoat at the saloon of Stella Mears, Broadway. He will be given a hearing tomorrow.

SOME GOOD SHOE POINTS

We find a great many people in buying shoes, who come to us and ask us to select them a shoe that we know will give them satisfaction. These same people always return to us when they want good shoes. They are the customers that are always satisfied. They take our word for quality and permit us to fit them properly. We see that they get all the style that they wish for too.

We solicit the trade that appreciate this treatment. If you cannot come with the children we will take proper care of them too.

SOUTH SIDE

ROCKY MOUNTAIN RATTLER

Presented J. Howard Maxwell, Caused Excitement on a Train From Wheeling.

The delegation representing Hancock county at the congressional convention at Wheeling yesterday, returned on the evening train. They joined the delegates to the Washington presbytery meeting at Wheeling, and so far as the Chester contingent was concerned the companionship was anything but congenial.

It was announced through the train soon after it reached Wheeling that J. Howard Maxwell, one of the congressional delegates from Chester, was afflicted with "snakes." The Hancock county Presbyterians were horrified, and did their best to avoid the politicians, but they were finally thrown together. Then it was learned that it was not the disease which allied Mr. Maxwell, but some friend had presented him with a fine specimen of the Rocky Mountain rattler. The reptile will probably be placed on exhibition at Rock Springs.

Wellsburg Goes Wet.

The voters of Wellsburg yesterday decided to have licensed houses. The "wets" had a majority of 31 votes, and it was their first victory in four years. The voters also decided to issue $12,000 in bonds for the purpose of building a water works system for the new Fourth ward. Only one Democrat, John Ralston, a councilman, was elected. All the others were Republicans, as follows: Council Charles Dare, J. C. Reed, Solomon Colds, W. M. Matthews, John Fisher, David Shakely and Harry Kelly; city clerk, Charles Clark.

Treated at the Hospital.

Mrs. Helen Butterworth, who resides in the upper part of Chester, has been suffering for some time with a complication of diseases. Her physician advised an operation several days ago as the only possible chance of saving her life. Yesterday the lady was taken to the Taylor hospital at East Liverpool and the information was given out today that the operation had been performed and that it was in every way satisfactory. It is likely the lady will be brought to her home on this side of the river in a few days.

A Widow Burned Out.

A disastrous fire occurred in Chester at 7 o'clock this morning when the residence of Mrs. Kate Grim, residing in the lower part of town, was burned to the ground. There was no one at home at the time and the loss will be complete. Mrs. Grim is a widow and everything she owned was consumed by the flames, which burned fiercely and without interruption. The house was partially insured, but it is said there was nothing on the household furniture.

Will Locate in Chester.

Dr. Frank Bassett, who was in Chester yesterday looking up a location for a dental office, has decided to open offices in the C. T. McCutcheon building over the drug store. The location is a most desirable one, and the doctor will undoubtedly make a success in his new field. He formerly practiced in Wheeling.

Successful Bazaar.

The first night of the bazaar being conducted by the ladies of the First Christian church at Rock Springs pavilion was a complete success. Elaborate preparations had been made for the event, and the program was interesting and well received. The second and final entertainment will be given this evening.

DON'T DESPAIR DYSPEPSIA CAN BE CURED

From Mr. Edward Hawley, Foreman of The Albert Pack Lumber Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have been a sufferer for years from dyspepsia and indigestion. I got nervous and weak and run down in flesh and was unable to attend to my work at times. I would suffer from gas in my stomach until I thought every moment was my last. I could not draw a full breath, everything I ate would distress me, my stomach would get sour and ferment. I had a pressure in my chest. I would get drowsy, have shills and sweat, and many symptoms I cannot describe. I was advised to try Vetter's Dyspepsia Remedy, and I am thankful I did, for it cured me entirely. I can eat anything now without having any distress or troubles I had before using the Remedy. I give this statement for the benefit of other sufferers. Edward Hawley, 47 Cleveland Street.

CITY ENGINEER'S A USEFUL OFFICE

Mayor Weaver Would Like to See It Raised to a Department Soon.

GOOD SUGGESTIONS MANY

In the Budget Presented to Council, and Several of Them Are Likely to Be Adopted By the City Legislature.

The annual financial report of the city, submitted to council last evening by Mayor Weaver, was the first of the kind ever prepared by a chief executive of East Liverpool, and owing to its completeness and comprehensiveness, the members of council were much pleased and wisely had it turned over to the finance committee for careful consideration.

The advice given by the mayor will be well weighed. There was nothing radical in the budget, the financial status being based on the figures as they actually are and the recommendations bearing on subjects as they are viewed by the councilmen. The members will most certainly do their best to conduct the affairs of the municipality economically, even to a greater degree than in the past year; they will favorably consider the public dumping ground recommendation; a uniform system of garbage removal and disposal and the supplying different sections of the city with sewers.

While the above are considered very important suggestions, one that will be of interest to the council in particular pertains to the office of city engineer. The mayor advised that the office be restored to the dignity of a department. Long since the mayor discovered that the engineering of the city has been sadly neglected owing to the fact that the engineer has been working under the supervision of the board of public service. Every day for months people have tramped to the city hall looking for the engineer. That official has been there most of the time, but he has been working by the dictates of the service board and could not perform duties as he was accustomed to prior to the inauguration of the code.

The mayor and other city officials cannot be convinced that the board of service had the least right to appoint the engineer. It does not come under the head of that board, according to their judgment, which is based on the provisions of the code. The appointment is to be made by the mayor and sanctioned by council. This recommendation will meet with unanimous favor by council and the power to appoint the engineer will undoubtedly be again vested in the mayor.

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Is Letter Received from Henry Dreese.

Sufferers from chronic catarrh are very numerous. The disease is especially prevalent in this country and is almost impossible to shake off. It is at once offensive and disagreeable, and entails a great deal of discomfort to those unfortunately afflicted with it. For the benefit of these we publish the following letter from Mr. Henry Dreese, of 113 Lods street, Akron, O. The Cooper Medicine Co.

Gentlemen—For over 45 years I have suffered with Catarrh in its worst form. One bottle of your remedy has given me such relief that I do not hesitate in recommending it to all those afflicted with the same trouble.

Yours truly,

HENRY DREESE.

Mr. Dreese is evidently a man of a few words, but sincerity rings in every line of his short letter. It is very much to the point. He has been a sufferer from Catarrh for 45 years. If you are also a sufferer from that loathsome disease take his advice and try a bottle of Dr. Cooper's New Discovery, the wonderful remedy which is startling medical science with its marvelous cures. It is guaranteed by the Cooper Medicine Co., of Dayton, and if it fails to cure you they will refund your money without a question. It has cured thousands of Catarrhal cases and will cure you quickly and permanently. If it fails you are not out one cent. Ask your druggist for it.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

A DROOPING WOMAN.

THIS PITTSBURG MAN, TOO.

Tired, Weak, But Paine's Celery Compound Made Her Strong.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 30, 1904.—"I was feeling tired and weak and had been troubled with nervousness for a long time. When I walked on the street I became dizzy and felt that I was going to fall. I had doctored with the best physicians, but got no relief."

"I had read of the numerous cures made by Paine's Celery Compound, and finally decided to try it. From the start the benefit which I derived was marked. After taking three bottles I feel that I am entirely cured."—MRS. S. A. ADDER, 843 N. Fourth street.

The gentle but unfailing regulating power of Paine's Celery Compound does away with "that disheartened feeling" which sets its mark upon the faces and the lives of so many unhappy women.

Thousands of women whose bright eyes, clear complexions, buoyant spirits and un-failing health are the envy of others, owe their pure, strong blood and fine vitality solely to the little morning doses of Paine's Celery Compound, the celebrated Nerve Vitalizer and Tonic, which gives the whole system strength to do its work in a healthy way. It keeps them "always at their best."

It "Braced Him Up"—Put Him on His Feet When He Was Run Down and Sickly.

"Allowing my system to become thoroughly undermined by hard work, loss of sleep and nervousness, the result was that I was a fit subject for the hospital. A friend of mine recommended my taking Paine's Celery Compound, which I did, and after taking one bottle of your valuable compound, felt much better. A second bottle has put me on my feet again. It braced me up. I now feel like a new man."—L. SHEETS, 223 Lehigh Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Motherhood

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon healthy womanhood.

Women whose vitality has been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and in childbirth weakness of the mother is revealed in the pain and agony she suffers.

This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after childbirth, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy.

Wine of Cardui babies are healthy babies, because, during the months of pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength.

With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the re-inforcement that Wine of Cardui will give her. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine.

Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polycarp, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902.

I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the first six suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the seventh was born I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child and was stouter in three days after the birth than I was in a month after the birth of either of the first six. I am 29 years old.

DON'T DESPAIR DYSPEPSIA CAN BE CURED

From Mr. Edward Hawley, Foreman of The Albert Pack Lumber Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: I have been a sufferer for years from dyspepsia and indigestion. I got nervous and weak and run down in flesh and was unable to attend to my work at times. I would suffer from gas in my stomach until I thought every moment was my last. I could not draw a full breath, everything I ate would distress me, my stomach would get sour and ferment. I had a pressure in my chest. I would get drowsy, have chills and sweat, and many symptoms I cannot describe. I was advised to try Vetter's Dyspepsia Remedy, and I am thankful I did, for it cured me entirely. I can eat anything now without having any distress or troubles. I had before using the Remedy. I give this statement for the benefit of other sufferers. Edward Hawley, 41 Cleveland Street.

CITY ENGINEER'S A USEFUL OFFICE

Mayor Weaver Would Like to See
It Raised to a Department
Soon.

GOOD SUGGESTIONS MANY

In the Budget Presented to Council, and Several of Them Are Likely to Be Adopted By the City Legislature.

The annual financial report of the city, submitted to council last evening by Mayor Weaver, was the first of the kind ever prepared by a chief executive of East Liverpool, and owing to its completeness and comprehensiveness, the members of council were much pleased and wisely had it turned over to the finance committee for careful consideration.

The advice given by the mayor will be well weighed. There was nothing radical in the budget, the financial status being based on the figures as they actually are and the recommendations bearing on subjects as they are viewed by the councilmen. The members will most certainly do their best to conduct the affairs of the municipality economically, even to a greater degree than in the past year; they will favorably consider the public dumping ground recommendation; a uniform system of garbage removal and disposal and the supplying different sections of the city with sewers.

While the above are considered very important suggestions, one that will be of interest to the council in particular pertains to the office of city engineer. The mayor advised that the office be restored to the dignity of a department. Long since the mayor discovered that the engineering of the city has been sadly neglected owing to the fact that the engineer has been working under the supervision of the board of public service. Every day for months people have tramped to the city hall looking for the engineer. That official has been there most of the time, but he has been working by the dictates of the service board and could not perform duties as he was accustomed to prior to the inauguration of the code.

The mayor and other city officials cannot be convinced that the board of service had the least right to appoint the engineer. It does not come under the head of that board, according to their judgment, which is based on the provisions of the code. The appointment is to be made by the mayor and sanctioned by council. This recommendation will meet with unanimous favor by council and the power to appoint the engineer will undoubtedly be again vested in the mayor.

Motherhood

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon healthy womanhood.

Women whose vitality has been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and in childbirth weakness of the mother is revealed in the pain and agony she suffers.

This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after childbirth, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy.

Wine of Cardui babies are healthy babies, because, during the months of pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength.

With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the re-inforcement that Wine of Cardui will give her. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine.

Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polycarp, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902.

I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the first six suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the seventh was born I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child, and was stout in three days after the birth than I was in a month after the birth of either of the first six. I am 29 years old.

WORK OF THE SESSION TO DATE

Senate Follows Example of House and Shuts Out the Lobbyists—Dream of Direct Legislation League. Kilbourne Boom Growing.

Columbus, O., April 12.—(Special.) It is the appropriation bills that are now bothering the legislators as well as the state administration. Governor Herriek and the state officers are particularly anxious to have the state expenses kept down to the lowest possible notch, but it looks as if the bills will run at least half a million dollars in excess of what they aggregated two years ago.

The trouble is that the state institutions have been run on such an economical basis for years that it is absolutely necessary now to expend large sums of money. And at that, no extravagant expenditures are to be made for new buildings.

The state will spend more money on the schools this year than ever before, and that is an expense, of course, to which no one will object. Every intelligent citizen is anxious to have the growing generation given every possible educational advantage, and it is recognized as an incontrovertible truth that the masses get their schooling from the town, village and district seats of learning.

Governor Herriek and his fellow state officers would be the last to complain about expenditures for school purposes. There are so many necessary increases that the appropriation bills will be comparatively large, but a growing, prosperous state requires an expense account in keeping with its standing in the galaxy of states.

Professor Wylie, United States chemist, and chemists representing the National Pure Food association, endeavored to convince the house committee on food that beer containing less than 5 per cent alcohol is not intoxicating, according to the announcement of the representatives of the liquor interests.

The Sawyer bill, which provides that beer containing less than 5 per cent alcohol is a liquid food and not an intoxicant, was discussed.

All the light beers sold over the bars of the state contain between 4 and 5 per cent of alcohol, and four-fifths of the beer sold is of this grade. The bill would permit such beer to be sold in dry towns and dry districts within municipalities.

There will be no startling laws enacted this session to put county officers on straight salaries. All the winter through county officers have been actively lobbying against salary bills. The auditors, sheriffs, recorders, prosecutors, probate judges, surveyors and coroners have been fighting salary bills. While these officers have been staving off salary legislation, the common pleas and circuit judges have had strong lobbies here working for salary bills—but measures that increase their own pay. They have been successful lobbyists and a boost in salaries will be the result of their efforts.

On Thursday of this week the house will fight out a fish and game code. The Bright bill, which was prepared by the state fish and game commission, was reported favorably to the house. It codifies the fish and game laws, and will give better protection to fish and game.

During the entire session of the legislature only 900 bills have been introduced. Of course, this is a big bunch, but if comparison is made with the introductions of previous sessions the number looks smaller. Two years ago, more than 1,600 bills were introduced. The average has been pretty well up to that figure during the past decade.

But the number so far enacted into laws fades into insignificance by comparison with those introduced. Up to this writing, Governor Herriek has affixed his signature of approval only to 69 measures. He may be called upon to O. K. that many more, and if he does, the "laws made" will be small in number—and it is the opinion of the safe lawmaker that the fewer new laws the better.

The house has agreed to the senate resolution which fixes the time of adjournment for the 25th of this month. This means that the legislature will have to stop its tiresome grind on that day.

Although there are no fewer than 800 bills still pending, as indicated in a previous paragraph, the members will be able to get the really "needful" measures out of the way. When the Brannock district option bill was passed on Tuesday, one very important and particularly harrassing proposition was written as history. The pro-liquor and the anti-saloon legislators were equally pleased when Clerk Scooby had finished the calling of the roll.

Governor Herriek has not vetoed a single bill so far but he was ready to send back to the legislature unsigned the measure that proposed to give to security bonding companies a monopoly on the bonding business of the state. The Crafts' house bill was passed by both bodies. It provided that all public officers and all administrators, guardians, etc., who were compelled to give more than a $2,000 bond should be compelled to forfeit the time-honored right to ask friends to go their security and that bonds of security companies must be presented for approval. The senate reconsidered the vote by which the bill was passed after most strenuous objections came from all parts of the state. The Crafts' bill will be relieved of some of its objectionable features and then made a law. The legislators learned of the governor's contemplated action and then prepared to put the bill in acceptable form.

The LeFever bill, to authorize the appointment of a commission to grant public-service franchises, was referred to the city affairs committee of the house. This is the committee picked out by the friends of the measure. It is said that some of the objectionable features of the bill will be removed with the consent of its friends.

For the protection of the life and limb of those persons who work in mines for a living, the senate has passed the Pollock bill, which provides that firing of blasts must be done by regular miners after the working miners have left the mines. Heretofore, miners have been compelled to fire their own shots just before quitting work for the day. The Pollock bill fixes a penalty for operators who do not comply with the law.

Lobbyists will be excluded from the floor of the senate as well as from the floor of the house. Emulating the example of the lower body, the senate adopted a resolution offered by Senator Connell of Columbiana, which forbids the privileges of the floor to all persons except the members of the legislature and the governor. The policy of exclusiveness worked so successfully in the house that the senate took to it like the average child to measles.

Senator Ricketts of Franklin county, introduced a general bill which is aimed to give all sorts of future relief to the city of Columbus. The bill says that persons in charge of state real estate, like benevolent and penal institutions, etc., shall be authorized to give the state's consent to street improvements. The consent would not only permit improvements but would tax the state for a portion of the cost of the improvements. In the city of Columbus, particularly, this would entail an expense of thousands of dollars annually to the taxpayers of the whole state.

The Direct Legislation League of Ohio, with headquarters at Cleveland, and at whose instance Representative Rawson of Cuyahoga, introduced a constitutional amendment giving the people the right of direct law making through the initiative and referendum, appeared before the house judiciary committee to advocate the favorable consideration of the amendment to the state constitution allowing the people to vote direct on local and state laws.

The league is a non-partisan association and bases its arguments for favorable action on the fact that the measure has been tried in many places and always gives satisfaction. It is claimed that the enactment of the law would kill monopoly, purify the ballot, reduce taxation, broaden manhood, prevent revolution, accelerate progress, establish home rule, simplify government, cause people to think, sever partisan bondage, eliminate plutocratic dictation, make good citizenship effective, prevent lobbyistism and bribery of lawmakers, give the people their rights and honest men to serve the people and give a government of, for and by the people, with equal and exact justice to all, and this is all the league claims for the little amendment.

As a slap-bang solar plexus blow to Editor William Hearst and his presidential campaign, this innocent but encouraging statement comes from Kilbourne headquarters in this city:

"The campaign for Kilbourne delegates is progressing in a manner far more satisfactory than the most ardent friends of the colonel had expected.

"There is no contest in this district and as a result there will be no haste in calling the members of the county committee together to fix the time and manner of selecting delegates. Nothing in this regard will be done until all the elements have been consulted, as there is no disposition upon the part of any of the leaders to disturb the harmony which has existed within the ranks of the party here for several months.

"The Kilbourne committee is devoting much of its time to outside effort and as a result of correspondence letters are coming in to the committee rooms every day from county leaders, all of which are of one tone—the hearty support of the leaders is pledged to Colonel Kilbourne."

DIVER'S HORRIBLE DEATH.

Held Prisoner 70 Feet Below Surface in Water Works Dam.

New York, April 12.—At the new reservoir which is being constructed by the Jersey City authorities at Bontonn, N. J., a diver has been imprisoned in 70 feet of water since 2 o'clock Monday. Repeated attempts to rescue him were made by another diver, but all have been unsuccessful. Two more divers have gone from New York to aid in saving the man.

The second diver reported that the man below was caught by one leg between the great wooden ball and a flange of the pipe and all efforts to release him had been unavailing.

The imprisoned man was alive at 12 o'clock, but since that time no signal has been received from him at the surface. Four divers were trying to rescue him. Shortly before 1 o'clock the last diver at work was brought to the surface unconscious. When revived he said he thought the man below had been dead for some time. One of the rescuing divers is in a serious condition. He had been working almost unceasingly from 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and had had nothing to eat during that time.

Hear, the unfortunate diver, was sent from New York to close an intake pipe in the lake. To close the pipe, the gate of which was not working properly, a ball of wood and lead nine feet in diameter had been lowered in front of the opening. Still the water continued to flow through the pipe in almost as great volume as before.

Hear went down to place the ball in proper position and his left leg became caught between the pipe and the ball, owing to the great suction. All efforts to release him failed, although the work of the rescuers was continued until last night.

Engineers are now at work on the problem of stopping the suction at the mouth of the pipe so that the ball may be rolled away.

Runaway Freight Train Causes Fatal Accident at Fredonia, N. Y.

Fredonia, N. Y., April 12.—A freight train on the Dunkirk, Allegheny Valley & Pittsburgh road, coming down grade into the yards here, got beyond control and the locomotive crashed into a freight train standing on the main line. The engine went through the caboose of the standing train and into an oil tank car. The oil exploded and set the wreckage on fire.

Engineer Wesley Carter was caught between the engine and tender and killed. The fireman escaped by jumping.

CANCER CURED BY LIFE PLANT

A REMARKABLE DISCOVERY THAT IS ATTRACTING THE ATTENTION OF MEDICAL SCIENCE EVERYWHERE.

A POSITIVE CURE EFFECTED IN THE CASE OF MR. J. D. MILLS, A WELL KNOWN AND HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZEN OF NEW CUMBERLAND, OHIO, WHO SUFFERED FOR ELEVEN YEARS WITH THE DREAD DISEASE.

MR. MILLS' REMARKABLE RECOVERY

Eleven years ago Mr. Mills discovered a fungus growth appearing on his left ear. It rapidly grew to such alarming proportions and became so painful that he sought the advice of his family physician, who, after a careful examination pronounced it cancer. Mr. Mills at once began treatment for the disease, faithfully applying the remedies prescribed by various doctors and medicines advertised as positive cures for the most stubborn of all blood diseases. He found no relief in any of them and finally came face to face with death. He was told he must undergo the uncertainties of a surgical operation, else he certainly could live no longer than four or five months. It was his only chance.

At this time, his good friend, the Rev. Dr. Scutt, who had unbounded faith in LIFE PLANT as a blood purifier and who has seen hundreds of remarkable cures in cases of blood diseases, persuaded him to try a bottle of the remedy. Accepting it purely as a tonic to his run-down system; as an agent for the purifying of his cancer-ridden blood, he began using it regularly. To his surprise the first bottle lessened the eating, gnawing sensation near the ear, and hoping against hope, he continued its use until the cancer entirely disappeared and he once more became well and strong.

Read His Sincere Message to Other Sufferers

MR. MILLS' OWN STORY

The Life Plant Co., Canton, Ohio.
Gentlemen:—Eleven years ago a cancer appeared on my left ear; it was small at first, but, as is the case with a growth of this kind, it gradually increased in size and severity. One of the cartilages of the ear was entirely eaten away. There was a raw sore on my ear and face as broad as your finger, and about two inches long. You can imagine how I suffered. That eating, gnawing sensation continued without interruption day and night. Occasionally a blood vessel was eaten off and the blood would trickle down my face. For three years I could not be in bed without tying up my face on account of the life, inch by inch.

I, of course, sought advice from numerous physicians; I called upon physicians in St. Louis and Cleveland, and was under treatment by local physicians for several years. The last physician to whom I talked told me plainly that I could not live four months unless I submitted to an operation. It was then that the good old Rev. Scutt told me he thought LIFE PLANT would help me.

I immediately began taking LIFE PLANT; I had not taken one bottle until the eating sensation lessened. I stopped all other treatment, and have taken nothing but LIFE PLANT since.

I realized that I could not be cured of a disease that had been coming on me for years and had reached the stage of development that my case had, by one or two bottles of LIFE PLANT or any other medicine. I settled down to taking this one remedy, and, while I improved from the very beginning, the cancer was not entirely cured for two years.

I began taking LIFE PLANT on or about the 10th day of September, 1897, and now I am 57 years of age, and as well as ever, sound in every particular. There is no more cancer, the sore is entirely healed, and nothing but a scar remains to show that my life was once threatened with a deadly cancer.

Now I want to say that in view of the fact that cancer is one of the most severe and stubborn blood diseases known, and in view of the fact that LIFE PLANT cured me, I firmly believe that LIFE PLANT will cure any disease arising from impure blood if the patient will persist in its use as I did. I have said nothing but the truth, and stand ready to back every word with an affidavit if called upon to do so.

Wishing you success, I am, sincerely yours,

JAMES D. MILLS.

We will pay the expenses of any person or persons from any part of the United States to New Cumberland, Ohio, and award them a reasonable compensation besides, if upon interviewing Mr. Mills they do not find that HE WAS POSITIVELY CURED OF CANCER BY LIFE PLANT, according to his statement above.

Life Plant--An Effective Germicide

LIFE PLANT purifies and cleanses the blood, by expelling those micro-organisms that are the known and direct causes of catarrh, rheumatism, scrofula, eczema and all other diseases of the vital life fluid. These minute specimens of the animal kingdom permeate the whole system, propagating by thousands, living and thriving on the red corpuscles of the blood until the strength is sapped and one or other of the dread diseases is fully developed. To destroy the disease the cause must be removed—the germ must be killed. LIFE PLANT is guaranteed to be an active, potent and effective germicide. With unerring force it sweeps from the system the countless little enemies that threaten and destroy the health, it makes new and pure blood, it restores the body to its normal condition of strength. As such an agent LIFE PLANT is positively and absolutely guaranteed.

Cancer is a blood disease. But the germ that causes it preys not only upon the blood, but upon the flesh of the body as well, eating its way through the vital tissues and organisms, destroying everything in its path. Impure blood can be purified, but flesh or organs of the body that have been eaten away cannot be restored, hence cancer is known as an incurable disease.

THE LIFE PLANT COMPANY never claimed that LIFE PLANT would cure cancer. In the three cases where the remedy has been tried, however, it has effected positive and permanent cures.

IT SEEMS LOGICAL, THEREFORE, THAT IF LIFE PLANT WILL CURE A CASE OF CANCER OF ELEVEN YEARS' STANDING, WHERE PHYSICIANS HAVE LOST HOPE OF CURING EXCEPT BY MEANS OF UNCERTAIN SURGICAL OPERATION, IT WILL SURELY CURE RHEUMATISM, CATARRH, SCROFULA, ECZEMA AND ALL OTHER DISEASES ARISING FROM BLOOD INFECTIONS.

If you are suffering with rheumatism, if you have catarrh or any other form of the health-taking blood diseases, get LIFE PLANT today and take it as directed. If it does not positively and permanently cure you, the druggist will refund your money in full. We will pay the druggist—YOU LOSE NOTHING.

In eighteen months we have treated 14,000 cases, with only 347 failures. Thousands of unsolicited testimonials, on file at our office and of free access to all, bear witness to these figures.

Still the water continued to flow through the pipe in almost as great volume as before.

Hoar went down to place the ball in proper position and his left leg became caught between the pipe and the ball, owing to the great suction. All efforts to release him failed, although the work of the rescuers was continued until last night.

Engineers are now at work on the problem of stopping the suction at the mouth of the pipe so that the ball may be rolled away.

CANCER CURED BY LIFE PLANT

A REMARKABLE DISCOVERY THAT IS ATTRACTING THE ATTENTION OF MEDICAL SCIENCE EVERYWHERE.

A POSITIVE CURE EFFECTED IN THE CASE OF MR. J. D. MILLS, A WELL KNOWN AND HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZEN OF NEW CUMBERLAND, OHIO, WHO SUFFERED FOR ELEVEN YEARS WITH THE DREAD DISEASE.

MR. MILLS' REMARKABLE RECOVERY

Eleven years ago Mr. Mills discovered a fungus growth appearing on his left ear. It rapidly grew to such alarming proportions and became so painful that he sought the advice of his family physician, who, after a careful examination pronounced it cancer. Mr. Mills at once began treatment for the disease, faithfully applying the remedies prescribed by various doctors and medicines advertised as positive cures for the most stubborn of all blood diseases. He found no relief in any of them and finally came face to face with death. He was told he must undergo the uncertainties of a surgical operation, else he certainly could live no longer than four or five months. It was his only chance.

At this time, his good friend, the Rev. Dr. Scutt, who had unbounded faith in LIFE PLANT as a blood purifier and who has seen hundreds of remarkable cures in cases of blood diseases, persuaded him to try a bottle of the remedy. Accepting it purely as a tonic to his run-down system; as an agent for the purifying of his cancer-ridden blood, he began using it regularly. To his surprise the first bottle lessened the eating, gnawing sensation near the ear, and hoping against hope, he continued its use until the cancer entirely disappeared and he once more became well and strong.

MR. MILLS' OWN STORY

The Life Plant Co., Canton, Ohio.

New Cumberland, Ohio, Nov. 3, 1903.

Gentlemen:—Eleven years ago a cancer appeared on my left ear; it was small at first, but, as is the case with a growth of this kind, it gradually increased in size and severity. One of the cartilages of the ear was entirely eaten away. There was a raw sore on my ear and face as broad as your finger, and about two inches long. You can imagine how I suffered.

That eating, gnawing sensation continued without interruption day and night. Occasionally a blood vessel was eaten off and the blood would trickle down my face. For three years I could not be in bed without tying up my face on account of the continued suppuration of the wound. My condition was indeed deplorable; a rancorous, loathsome cancer, eating away my life, inch by inch.

I, of course, sought advice from numerous physicians; I called upon physicians in St. Louis and Cleveland, and was under treatment by local physicians for several years. The last physician to whom I talked told me plainly that I could not live four months unless I submitted to an operation. It was then that the good old Rev. Scutt told me he thought LIFE PLANT would help me.

I immediately began taking LIFE PLANT; I had not taken one bottle until the eating sensation lessened. I stopped all other treatment, and have taken nothing but LIFE PLANT since.

I realized that I could not be cured of a disease that had been coming on me for years and had reached the stage of development that my case had, by one or two bottles of LIFE PLANT or any other medicine. I settled down to taking this one remedy, and, while I improved from the very beginning, the cancer was not entirely cured for two years.

I began taking LIFE PLANT on or about the 10th day of September, 1897, and now I am 57 years of age, and as well as ever, sound in every particular. There is no more cancer, the sore is entirely healed, and nothing but a scar remains to show that my life was once threatened with a deadly cancer.

Now I want to say that in view of the fact that cancer is one of the most severe and stubborn blood diseases known, and in view of the fact that LIFE PLANT cured me, I firmly believe that LIFE PLANT will cure any disease arising from impure blood if the patient will persist in its use as I did. I have said nothing but the truth, and stand ready to back every word with an affidavit if called upon to do so.

Wishing you success, I am, sincerely yours,

JAMES D. MILLS.

We will pay the expenses of any person or persons from any part of the United States to New Cumberland, Ohio, and award them a reasonable compensation besides, if upon interviewing Mr. Mills they do not find that HE WAS POSITIVELY CURED OF CANCER BY LIFE PLANT, according to his statement above.

Life Plant--An Effective Germicide

LIFE PLANT purifies and cleanses the blood, by expelling those micro-organisms that are the known and direct causes of catarrh, rheumatism, scrofula, eczema and all other diseases of the vital fluid. These minute specimens of the animal kingdom permeate the whole system, propagating by thousands, living and thriving on the red corpuscles of the blood until the strength is sapped and one or other of the dread diseases is fully developed.

To destroy the disease the cause must be removed—the germ must be killed. LIFE PLANT is guaranteed to be an active, potent and effective germicide. With unerring force it sweeps from the system the countless little enemies that threaten and destroy the health, it makes new and pure blood, it restores the body to its normal condition of strength. As such an agent LIFE PLANT is positively and absolutely guaranteed.

Cancer is a blood disease. But the germ that causes it preys not only upon the blood, but upon the flesh of the body as well, eating its way through the vital tissues and organs, destroying everything in its path. Impure blood can be purified, but flesh or organs of the body that have been eaten away cannot be restored, hence cancer is known as an incurable disease.

THE LIFE PLANT COMPANY never claimed that LIFE PLANT would cure cancer. In the three cases where the remedy has been tried, however, it has effected positive and permanent cures.

IT SEEMS LOGICAL, THEREFORE, THAT IF LIFE PLANT WILL CURE A CASE OF CANCER OF ELEVEN YEARS' STANDING, WHERE PHYSICIANS HAVE LOST HOPE OF CURING EXCEPT BY MEANS OF UNCERTAIN SURGICAL OPERATION, IT WILL SURELY CURE RHEUMATISM, CATARRH, SCROFULA, ECZEMA AND ALL OTHER DISEASES ARISING FROM BLOOD INFECTIONS.

If you are suffering with rheumatism, if you have catarrh or any other form of the health-taking blood diseases, get LIFE PLANT today and take it as directed. If it does not positively and permanently cure you, the druggist will refund your money in full. We will pay the druggist—YOU LOSE NOTHING.

In eighteen months we have treated 14,000 cases, with only 347 failures. Thousands of unsolicited testimonials, on file at our office and of free access to all, bear witness to these figures.

WORK OF THE SESSION TO DATE

Senate Follows Example of House and Shuts Out the Lobbyists—Dream of Direct Legislation League, Kilbourne Boom Growing.

Columbus, O., April 12.—(Special.) It is the appropriation bills that are now bothering the legislators as well as the state administration. Governor Herrick and the state officers are particularly anxious to have the state expenses kept down to the lowest possible notch, but it looks as if the bills will run at least half a million dollars in excess of what they aggregated two years ago.

The trouble is that the state institutions have been run on such an economical basis for years that it is absolutely necessary now to expend large sums of money. And at that, no extravagant expenditures are to be made for new buildings.

The state will spend more money on the schools this year than ever before, and that is an expense, of course, to which no one will object. Every intelligent citizen is anxious to have the growing generation given every possible educational advantage, and it is recognized as an incontrovertible truth that the masses get their schooling from the town, village and district seats of learning.

Governor Herrick and his fellow state officers would be the last to complain about expenditures for school purposes. There are so many necessary increases that the appropriation bills will be comparatively large, but a growing, prosperous state requires an expense account in keeping with its standing in the galaxy of states.

Professor Wylie, United States chemist, and chemists representing the National Pure Food association, endeavored to convince the house committee on food that beer containing less than 5 per cent alcohol is not intoxicating, according to the announcement of the representatives of the liquor interests.

The Sawyer bill, which provides that beer containing less than 5 per cent alcohol is a liquid food and not an intoxicant, was discussed.

All the light beers sold over the bars of the state contain between 4 and 5 per cent of alcohol, and four-fifths of the beer sold is of this grade. The bill would permit such beer to be sold in dry towns and dry districts within municipalities.

There will be no startling laws enacted this session to put county officers on straight salaries. All the winter through county officers have been actively lobbying against salary bills. The auditors, sheriffs, recorders, prosecutors, probate judges, surveyors and coroners have been fighting salary bills. While these officers have been staving off salary legislation, the common pleas and circuit judges have had strong lobbies here working for salary bills—but measures that increase their own pay. They have been successful lobbyists and a boost in salaries will be the result of their efforts.

On Thursday of this week the house will fight out a fish and game code. The Bright bill, which was prepared by the state fish and game commission, was reported favorably to the house. It codifies the fish and game laws, and will give better protection to fish and game.

It's surprising how quickly children respond to Scott's Emulsion. It contains just the element of nourishment their little bodies need. They thrive on it.

During the entire session of the legislature only 900 bills have been introduced. Of course, this is a big bunch, but if comparison is made with the introductions of previous sessions the number looks smaller. Two years ago, more than 1,600 bills were introduced. The average has been pretty well up to that figure during the past decade.

But the number so far enacted into laws fades into insignificance by comparison with those introduced. Up to this writing, Governor Herrick has affixed his signature of approval only to 69 measures. He may be called upon to O. K. that many more, and if he does, the "laws made" will be small in number—and it is the opinion of the safe lawmaker that the fewer new laws the better.

The house has agreed to the senate resolution which fixes the time of adjournment for the 25th of this month. This means that the legislature will have to stop its tiresome grind on that day.

Although there are no fewer than 800 bills still pending, as indicated in a previous paragraph, the members will be able to get the really "needful" measures out of the way. When the Brannock district option bill was passed on Tuesday, one very important and particularly harassing proposition was written as history. The pro-liquor and the anti-saloon legislators were equally pleased when Clerk Scooby had finished the calling of the roll.

Governor Herrick has not vetoed a single bill so far but he was ready to send back to the legislature unsigned the measure that proposed to give to security bonding companies a monopoly on the bonding business of the state. The Crafts' house bill was passed by both bodies. It provided that all public officers and all administrators, guardians, etc., who were compelled to give more than a $2,000 bond should be compelled to forfeit the time-honored right to ask friends to go their security and that bonds of security companies must be presented for approval. The senate reconsidered the vote by which the bill was passed after most strenuous objections came from all parts of the state. The Crafts' bill will be relieved of some of its objectionable features and then made a law. The legislators learned of the governor's contemplated action and then prepared to put the bill in acceptable form.

The LeFever bill, to authorize the appointment of a commission to grant public-service franchises, was referred to the city affairs committee of the house. This is the committee picked out by the friends of the measure. It is said that some of the objectionable features of the bill will be removed with the consent of its friends.

For the protection of the life and limb of those persons who work in mines for a living, the senate has passed the Pollock bill, which provides that firing of blasts must be done by regular fraters after the working miners have left the mines. Heretofore, miners have been compelled to fire their own shots just before quitting work for the day. The Pollock bill fixes a penalty for operators who do not comply with the law.

Lobbyists will be excluded from the floor of the senate as well as from the floor of the house. Emulating the example of the lower body, the senate adopted a resolution offered by Senator Connell of Columbiana, which forbids the privileges of the floor to all persons except the members of the legislature and the governor. The policy of exclusiveness worked so successfully in the house that the senate took to it like the average child to measles.

Senator Ricketts of Franklin county, introduced a general bill which is aimed to give all sorts of future relief to the city of Columbus. The bill says that persons in charge of state real estate, like benevolent and penal institutions, etc., shall be authorized to give the state's consent to street improvements. The consent would not only permit improvements but would tax the state for a portion of the cost of the improvements. In the city of Columbus, particularly, this would entail an expense of thousands of dollars annually to the taxpayers of the whole state.

The Direct Legislation League of Ohio, with headquarters at Cleveland

and at whose instance Representative Rawson of Cuyahoga, introduced a constitutional amendment giving the people the right of direct law making through the initiative and referendum, appeared before the house judiciary committee to advocate the favorable consideration of the amendment to the state constitution allowing the people to vote direct on local and state laws.

The league is a non-partisan association and bases its arguments for favorable action on the fact that the measure has been tried in many places and always gives satisfaction. It is claimed that the enactment of the law would kill monopoly, purify the ballot, reduce taxation, broaden manhood, prevent revolution, accelerate progress, establish home rule, simplify government, cause people to think, sever partisan bondage, eliminate plutocratic domination, make good citizenship effective, prevent lobbying and bribery of lawmakers, give the people their rights and honest men to serve the people and give a government of, for and by the people, with equal and exact justice to all, and this is all the league claims for the little amendment.

As a slap-bang solar plexus blow to Editor William Hearst and his presidential campaign, this innocent but encouraging statement comes from Kilbourne headquarters in this city:

"The campaign for Kilbourne delegates is progressing in a manner far more satisfactory than the most ardent friends of the colonel had expected.

"There is no contest in this district and as a result there will be no haste in calling the members of the county committee together to fix the time and manner of selecting delegates. Nothing in this regard will be done until all the elements have been consulted, as there is no disposition upon the part of any of the leaders to disturb the harmony which has existed within the ranks of the party here for several months.

"The Kilbourne committee is devoting much of its time to outside effort and as a result of correspondence letters are coming in to the committee rooms every day from county leaders, all of which are of one tone—the hearty support of the leaders is pledged to Colonel Kilbourne."

DIVER'S HORRIBLE DEATH.

Held Prisoner 70 Feet Below Surface in Water Works Dam.

New York, April 12.—At the new reservoir which is being constructed by the Jersey City authorities at Boonton, N. J., a diver has been imprisoned in 70 feet of water since 2 o'clock Monday. Repeated attempts to rescue him were made by another diver, but all have been unsuccessful. Two more divers have gone from New York to aid in saving the man.

The second diver reported that the man below was caught by one leg between the great wooden ball and a flange of the pipe and all efforts to release him had been unavailing.

The imprisoned man was alive at 12 o'clock, but since that time no signal has been received from him at the surface. Four divers were trying to rescue him. Shortly before 1 o'clock the last diver at work was brought to the surface unconscious. When revived he said he thought the man below had been dead for some time. One of the rescuing divers is in a serious condition. He had been working almost unceasingly from 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and had had nothing to eat during that time.

Hoar, the unfortunate diver, was sent from New York to close an intake pipe in the lake. To close the pipe, the gate of which was not working properly, a ball of wood and lead nine feet in diameter had been lowered in front of the opening. Still the water continued to flow through the pipe in almost as great volume as before.

Hoar went down to place the ball in proper position and his left leg became caught between the pipe and the ball, owing to the great suction. All efforts to release him failed, although the work of the rescuers was continued until last night.

Engineers are now at work on the problem of stopping the suction at the mouth of the pipe so that the ball may be rolled away.

St. Petersburg Account of Two Encounters Gives Muscovites Distinctly the Best of It—Tokio Reports Fighting Along the Yalu River.

St. Petersburg, April 12.—General Kuropatkin, in a dispatch to the emperor, says that General Krasnalinski, on the night of April 8, ordered a detachment of sharpshooters to cross to the left bank of the Yalu opposite Wiju. The sharpshooters landed on the island of Samalind and surprised a patrol of 50 Japanese scouts just as the latter were approaching the east side of the island in three boats.

The Russians allowed the Japanese to land and then fired on them. Nearly all the Japanese were shot, bayoneted or drowned and their boats sunk. The Russians sustained no losses.

Non-commissioned officers Louchkine and Souhaschov distinguished themselves in the fight. On the following day the Japanese lowered their flag at Wiju and their outposts, which lately have been seen, fell back.

On the night of April 9 four Russians crossed the Yalu to Yongampho. They remained there 12 hours, when they were betrayed by Koreans and found themselves obliged to swim the river, their boat having struck on a sand bank. One soldier lost his life.

REAR ADMIRAL WIERKUS OF THE RUSSIAN NAVY.

The Japanese pursued the Russians in a boat but were in turn attacked by a Russian boat which had come to the rescue of the swimmers. The Japanese were all killed and their boat sunk.

Naval Battle Being Fought.

Chefoo, April 12.—The captain of the steamer Lockshan, which arrived to-day from Newchwang, reports that he heard heavy firing between 5 and 7 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning, in the direction of Port Arthur. The firing was continuous, but no ships were visible. From the direction of the sound he judged that there was fighting at the entrance to Port Arthur. The Lockshan was the last foreign merchant vessel to leave Newchwang, sailing at the same time as the British gunboat Espiegle.

A correspondent of the Associated Press at Teng Chow, 40 miles northwest of here, telegraphs as follows:

"Sounds of very heavy firing were heard at 6:30 this (Wednesday) morning. The firing evidently was being done between here and Port Arthur. It is believed at Teng Chow that the long-expected sea fight among the Mikado islands has taken place.

"The Japanese battleship Asahi, flying an admiral's flag, was seen off Chefoo yesterday going to the west, and there is no doubt that the remainder of the Japanese fleet was in the vicinity of Port Arthur. The Russian fleet also was seen outside Port Arthur yesterday."

Fighting Reported Along Yalu.

Tokio, April 13.—It is believed here that fighting has commenced on the Yalu river. It is known that the Russians occupy the right bank of the river in force. No direct information from the Yalu district has been received, but the position of the Russians is known and while it is doubtful that they will be able to prevent the Japanese from crossing the river, it is regarded as certain that they will offer some opposition. It is not believed, however, that there will be a serious engagement during the Japanese attempts to cross the Yalu. The foreign military observers attached to the first Japanese army have been directed to hold themselves in readiness to move and it is expected that they will leave for the front in a few days.

Seoul, Korea, April 13.—The Japanese authorities here say there have been frequent skirmishes between Sak Ju and Wiju. The main body of the first Japanese army is in the neighborhood of Wiju.

The Japanese minister to Korea, M. Hayashi, has requested the Korean government to facilitate the plans of General Haraguchi, the commander of the Japanese forces at Seoul, for the thorough sanitation of Seoul and the other large towns of Korea, so as not to expose the Japanese troops to the ravages of cholera and other diseases.

Newchwang, April 12.—Prior to the departure of the British gunboat Espiegle, stationed here during the winter, M. Grosse, civil administrator of Newchwang, visited the warship officially. The civil administrator and Russian local authorities afterward waited on the esplanade along the water front while the gunboat steamed by on her way down the river. This official ceremony was in recognition of the cordial relations which have existed between officers of the Espiegle and the Russian authorities during the stay of the British gunboat at Newchwang.

The departure of the Espiegle removes a cause of embarrassment to the Russian authorities and enables them to put into execution a system of martial law consistent with the demands of the situation. The Espiegle was the last foreign warship at Newchwang, the United States gunboat Helena having left here some 10 days ago.

The streets of Newchwang are no longer lighted at night and the movement of boats on the river at night is prohibited.

Heavy Rainstorms in Manchuria.

Vladivostok, April 13.—Vladivostok and the surrounding country have been swept by a heavy storm which crippled the telegraph lines and destroyed buildings. The telegraph lines have been repaired.

Easter was joyfully celebrated here. Instead of eggs the citizens exchanged pieces of shells fired during the bombardment.

The commandant has ordered military music every evening. There are daily performances at the theater.

London, April 13.—The Times' Newchwang correspondent, cabling under date of April 11, says:

"Last night a pilot's flare was mistaken for the lights of a Japanese fleet and the Russians fired and sank the junk with 35 hands, besides killing three persons and wounding seven in another junk. The native population is panic-stricken and leaving the town."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents guaranteed by Will Reed, Charles T. Larkins, C. G. Anderson, J. D. Holloway, druggists.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TAKES PART

Knox Springs Surprise on Litigants In Northern Securities Case—Supreme Court Decision Must Not Be Evaded by Legal Technicalities.

St. Paul, April 13.—A great legal battle between corporation lawyers whose names are familiar from one side of the United States to the other and who represent two of the wealthiest corporations in the United States, is being waged in the United States district court here before Judges Sanborn, Vandevanter, Hook and Thayer. This action is based on a motion presented to the court by E. H. Harriman et al. for leave to file an intervening petition for the purpose of showing why the Northern Securities company's officials should not carry out a plan of distribution of the assets of the Northern Securities company in a manner alleged to be inimical to the interests of Harriman and Pierce.

The attorneys representing the plaintiffs are W. D. Guthrie, R. S. Lovett, general counsel of the Southern Pacific railroad; Judge J. M. Baldwin of Omaha, and Maxwell Everts of Ohio. The defendants are represented by Elihu Root, former secretary of war; John G. Johnson of Philadelphia; Francis Lynde Stetson, counsel for J. P. Morgan & Co.; George B. Young, Frank B. Kellogg and C. A. Severance.

The bonds issued during the year were as follows:

Drury Lane	$2,244.00
Peach and Chestnut	1,852.00
Summit Lane No. 1	1,008.00
Sugar alley	3,550.00
Calcutta street	10,804.00

College street	2,640.00
Halwin alley	10,804.00
Efficiency street	9,925.00
Pennsylvania avenue	35,100.00

In conclusion permit me to urge upon you the necessity of strict economy and keep each department within their appropriation and consider well all propositions and requests which would cause you to incur additional bonds as our bonded debt is now nearing the limit. If you establish a precedent of this kind it will be only a few years until our city will be in a good financial condition.

Respectfully submitted,

CZAR ANNOUNCES A VICTORY

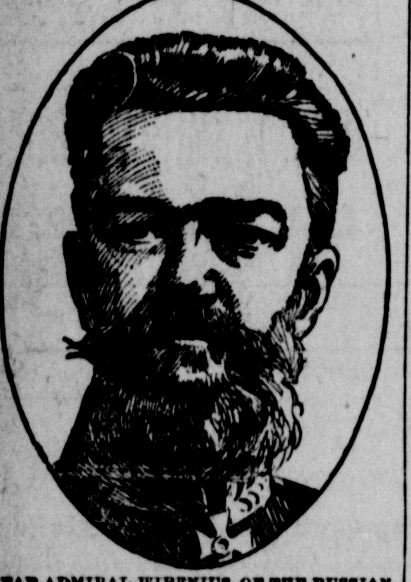

St. Petersburg Account of Two Encounters Gives Muscovites Distinctly the Best of It—Tokio Reports Fighting Along the Yalu River.

St. Petersburg, April 13.—General Kuropatkin, in a dispatch to the emperor, says that General Krasnalinski, on the night of April 8, ordered a detachment of sharpshooters to cross to the left bank of the Yalu opposite Wiju. The sharpshooters landed on the island of Samalind and surprised a patrol of 50 Japanese scouts just as the latter were approaching the east side of the island in three boats.

The Russians allowed the Japanese to land and then fired on them. Nearly all the Japanese were shot, bayoneted or drowned and their boats sunk. The Russians sustained no losses.

Non-commissioned officers Louchkine and Souhaschov distinguished themselves in the fight. On the following day the Japanese lowered their flag at Wiju and their outposts, which lately have been seen, fell back.

On the night of April 9 four Russians crossed the Yalu to Yungampho. They remained there 12 hours, when they were betrayed by Koreans and found themselves obliged to swim the river, their boat having struck on a sand bank. One soldier lost his life.

ADMIRAL WIERINSKI OF THE RUSSIAN NAVY.

The Japanese pursued the Russians in a boat but were in turn attacked by a Russian boat which had come to the rescue of the swimmers. The Japanese were all killed and their boat sunk.

Naval Battle Being Fought.

Chefoo, April 13.—The captain of the steamer Lockshan, which arrived to-day from Newchwang, reports that he heard heavy firing between 6 and 7 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning, in the direction of Port Arthur. The firing was continuous, but no ships were visible. From the direction of the sound he judged that there was fighting at the entrance to Port Arthur. The Lockshan was the last foreign merchant vessel to leave Newchwang, sailing at the same time as the British gunboat Espiegle.

A correspondent of the Associated Press at Teng Chow, 40 miles northwest of here, telegraphs as follows:

"Sounds of very heavy firing were heard at 6:30 this (Wednesday) morning. The firing evidently was being done between here and Port Arthur. It is believed at Teng Chow that the long-expected sea fight among the Mikado islands has taken place."

"The Japanese battleship Asahi, flying an admiral's flag, was seen off Chefoo yesterday going to the west, and there is no doubt that the remainder of the Japanese fleet was in the vicinity of Port Arthur. The Russian fleet also was seen outside Port Arthur yesterday."

Fighting Reported Along Yalu.

Tokio, April 13.—It is believed here that fighting has commenced on the Yalu river. It is known that the Russians occupy the right bank of the river in force. No direct information from the Yalu district has been received, but the position of the Russians is known and while it is doubtful that they will be able to prevent the Japanese from crossing the river, it is regarded as certain that they will offer some opposition. It is not believed, however, that there will be a serious engagement during the Japanese attempts to cross the Yalu. The foreign military observers attached to the first Japanese army have been directed to hold themselves in readiness to move and it is expected that they will leave for the front in a few days.

Seoul, Korea, April 13.—The Japanese authorities here say there have been frequent skirmishes between Sak Ju and Wiju. The main body of the first Japanese army is in the neighborhood of Wiju.

The Japanese minister to Korea, M. Hayashi, has requested the Korean government to facilitate the plans of General Haraguchi, the commander of the Japanese forces at Seoul, for the thorough sanitation of Seoul and the other large towns of Korea, as not to expose the Japanese troops to the ravages of cholera and other diseases. Newchwang, April 13.—Prior to the departure of the British gunboat Espiegle, stationed here during the winter, M. Grosse, civil administrator of Newchwang, visited the warship officially. The civil administrator and Russian local authorities afterward waited on the esplanade along the water front while the gunboat steamed by on her way down the river. This official ceremony was in recognition of the cordial relations which have existed between officers of the Espiegle and the Russian authorities during the stay of the British gunboat at Newchwang.

The departure of the Espiegle removes a cause of embarrassment to the Russian authorities and enables them to put into execution a system of martial law consistent with the demands of the situation. The Espiegle was the last foreign warship at Newchwang, the United States gunboat Helena having left here some 10 days ago.

The streets of Newchwang are no longer lighted at night and the movement of boats on the river at night is prohibited.

Heavy Rainstorms in Manchuria.

Vladivostok, April 13.—Vladivostok and the surrounding country have been swept by a heavy storm which crippled the telegraph lines and destroyed buildings. The telegraph lines have been repaired.

Easter was joyfully celebrated here. Instead of eggs the citizens exchanged pieces of shells fired during the bombardment.

The commandant has ordered military music every evening. There are daily performances at the theater.

London, April 13.—The Times' Newchwang correspondent, cabling under date of April 11, says:

"Last night a pilot's flare was mistaken for the lights of a Japanese fleet and the Russians fired and sank the junk with 35 hands, besides killing three persons and wounding seven in another junk. The native population is panic-stricken and leaving the town."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents guaranteed by Will Reed, Charles T. Larkins, C. G. Anderson, J. D. Holloway, druggists.

CITY AUDITOR'S STATEMENT

For the Fiscal Year Ending April 1st, 1904. Showing the Monthly Expenditures from the Various Funds. The average Monthly Expenditures from each fund and the Monthly Expenditures from all the funds, in accordance with Section 36, of the Municipal Code.

East Liverpool, Ohio, April 1st, 1904.
To the Honorable Mayor and City Council.
Gentlemen:
I have the honor of submitting herewith this report for the fiscal year ending April 1st, 1904. This report shows the monthly expenditures from the various funds, the average monthly expenditure from each fund and the monthly expenditures from all funds. As you are aware, no doubt, the average monthly expenditure from each fund is not the same as the five preceding years. This, however, is almost impossible to obtain owing to the fact that the present system of keeping accounts of the city is so much different from the old method. However, I will submit the totals for last year and the preceding year. They are the actual running expenses after deducting discounts and overdrifts.
For the year 1902 and 1903, $62,712.96
For the year 1903, $73,940.84
You will notice from the above totals that the running expenses of the city last year was $4,706.12 less than the year ending April 1st, 1903. Notwithstanding the fact that the city was raised a few months ago about the council's reckless expenditure of money. You can see from the above totals that the city is in a better condition than it was last year. This having been neglected, the treasurer and myself have lifted this note and are holding it as cash until council can appropriate the money to remedy it, thereby saving the interest. Thus you can see that the city is free from any floating debt at the present time. The city is in a better condition than it was last year and by strict economy we will be able to return the amount this year without issuing any additional bonds.
The bonds issued during the year were as follows:
Drury Lane	$2,244.00
Pennsylvania avenue	1,685.00
Summit Lane No. 1	1,008.00
Sugar alley	3,500.00
Valentine street	10,814.00
Trentville street	10,500.00
College street	2,649.00
Baldwin alley	496.00
Efficiency bonds	92,925.00
Pennsylvania avenue	35,100.00

In conclusion permit me to urge upon you the necessity of strict economy in the department within their appropriation and consider well all propositions and requests which would cause you to issue additional bonds as our bonded debt is now nearing the limit. If you establish a precedent of this kind it will be only a few years until our city will be in a good financial condition.
Respectfully submitted,
WILLIS DAVIDSON,
Auditor.

CZAR ANNOUNCES A VICTORY

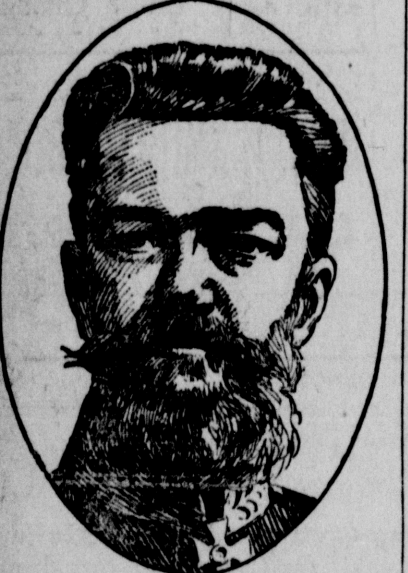

St. Petersburg Account of Two Encounters Gives Moscovites Distinctly the Best of It—Tokio Reports Fighting Along the Yalu River.

St. Petersburg, April 13.—General Kuropatkin, in a dispatch to the emperor, says that General Krasninski, on the night of April 8, ordered a detachment of sharpshooters to cross to the left bank of the Yalu opposite Wiju. The sharpshooters landed on the island of Samalin and surprised a patrol of 50 Japanese scouts just as the latter were approaching the east side of the island in three boats.

The Russians allowed the Japanese to land and then fired on them. Nearly all the Japanese were shot, bayoneted or drowned and their boats sunk. The Russians sustained no losses.

Non-commissioned officers Louchkine and Souhaschouy distinguished themselves in the fight. On the following day the Japanese lowered their flag at Wiju and their outposts, which lately have been seen, fell back.

On the night of April 9 four Russians crossed the Yalu to Yongampho. They remained there 12 hours, when they were betrayed by Koreans and found themselves obliged to swim the river, their boat having struck on a sand bank. One soldier lost his life.

ADMIRAL WIERENTZ OF THE RUSSIAN NAVY.

The Japanese pursued the Russians in a boat but were in turn attacked by a Russian boat which had come to the rescue of the swimmers. The Japanese were all killed and their boat sunk.

Naval Battle Being Fought.

Chefoo, April 13.—The captain of the steamer Lockshan, which arrived today from Newchwang, reports that he heard heavy firing between 5 and 7 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning, in the direction of Port Arthur. The firing was continuous, but no ships were visible. From the direction of the sound he judged that there was fighting at the entrance to Port Arthur. The Lockshan was the last foreign merchant vessel to leave Newchwang, sailing at the same time as the British gunboat Espiegle.

A correspondent of the Associated Press at Teng Chow, 40 miles northwest of here, telegraphs as follows:

"Sounds of very heavy firing were heard at 6:30 this (Wednesday) morning. The firing evidently was being done between here and Port Arthur. It is believed at Teng Chow that the long-expected sea fight among the Mikado islands has taken place.

"The Japanese battleship Asahi, flying an admiral's flag, was seen off Chefoo yesterday going to the west, and there is no doubt that the remainder of the Japanese fleet was in the vicinity of Port Arthur. The Russian fleet also was seen outside Port Arthur yesterday."

Fighting Reported Along Yalu.

Tokio, April 13.—It is believed here that fighting has commenced on the Yalu river. It is known that the Russians occupy the right bank of the river in force. No direct information from the Yalu district has been received, but the position of the Russians is known and while it is doubted that they will be able to prevent the Japanese from crossing the river, it is regarded as certain that they will offer some opposition. It is not believed, however, that there will be a serious engagement during the Japanese attempts to cross the Yalu. The foreign military observers attached to the first Japanese army have been directed to hold themselves in readiness to move and it is expected that they will leave for the front in a few days.

Seoul, Korea, April 13.—The Japanese authorities here say there have been frequent skirmishes between Sak Ju and Wiju. The main body of the first Japanese army is in the neighborhood of Wiju.

The Japanese minister to Korea, M. Hayashi, has requested the Korean government to facilitate the plans of the Japanese forces at Seoul, for the thorough sanitation of Seoul and the other large towns of Korea, so as not to expose the Japanese troops to the ravages of cholera and other diseases.

Newchwang, April 13.—Prior to the departure of the British gunboat Espiegle, stationed here during the winter, M. Grosse, civil administrator of Newchwang, visited the warship officially. The civil administrator and Russian local authorities afterward waited on the esplanade along the water front while the gunboat steamed by on her way down the river. This official ceremony was in recognition of the cordial relations which have existed between officers of the Espiegle and the Russian authorities during the stay of the British gunboat at Newchwang.

The departure of the Espiegle removes a cause of embarrassment to the Russian authorities and enables them to put into execution a system of martial law consistent with the demands of the situation. The Espiegle was the last foreign warship at Newchwang, the United States gunboat Helena having left here some 10 days ago.

The streets of Newchwang are no longer lighted at night and the movement of boats on the river at night is prohibited.

Heavy Rainstorms in Manchuria.

Vladivostok, April 13.—Vladivostok and the surrounding country have been swept by a heavy storm which crippled the telegraph lines and destroyed buildings. The telegraph lines have been repaired.

Easter was joyfully celebrated here. Instead of eggs the citizens exchanged pieces of shells fired during the bombardment.

The commandant has ordered military music every evening. There are daily performances at the theater.

London, April 13.—The Times' Newchwang correspondent, cabling under date of April 11, says:

"Last night a pilot's flare was mistaken for the lights of a Japanese fleet and the Russians fired and sank the junk with 35 hands, besides killing three persons and wounding seven in another junk. The native population is panic-stricken and leaving the town."

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents guaranteed by Will Reed, Charles T. Larkins, C. G. Anderson, J. D. Hollis way, druggists.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TAKES PART

Knox Springs Surprise on Litigants In Northern Securities Case—Supreme Court Decision Must Not Be Evaded by Legal Technicalities.

St. Paul, April 13.—A great legal battle between corporation lawyers whose names are familiar from one side of the United States to the other and who represent two of the wealthiest corporations in the United States, is being waged in the United States district court here before Judges Sanborn, Vandevanter, Hook and Thayer. This action is based on a motion presented to the court by E. H. Harriman et al. for leave to file an intervening petition for the purpose of showing why the Northern Securities company's officials should not carry out a plan of distribution of the assets of the Northern Securities company in a manner alleged to be inimical to the interests of Harriman and Pierce.

The attorneys representing the plaintiffs are W. D. Guthrie, R. S. Lovett, general counsel of the Southern Pacific railroad; Judge J. M. Baldwin of Omaha, and Maxwell Everts of Ohio. The defendants are represented by Elihu Root, former secretary of war; John G. Johnson of Philadelphia; Francis Lynde Stetson, counsel for J. P. Morgan & Co.; George B. Young, Frank B. Kellogg and C. A. Severance.
